Guidelines for Baptist Scholarships through the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina

A North Carolina Baptist student admitted to a North Carolina Baptist university or college to pursue a degree offered by the institution will be eligible to be considered by the Admissions/Financial Aid office of the campus for a Baptist Scholarship funded through the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

A qualifying student must be someone who has been a member in good standing for at least one year of a church that is affiliated with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and meets financial aid and scholarship guidelines of the institution.

The university/college will determine the amount awarded to the student, based upon the institution's portion of the Baptist Scholarship fund in the Convention Special account of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Upon acceptance of the scholarship, the student will grant the Convention permission to release information about his or her award to appropriate sources; i.e. The Biblical Recorder, hometown newspapers, home church, etc.

Monies will be dispensed according to the availability of funds through the Convention Special Budget.

The institution's Admissions/Financial Aid Office and the Council on Christian Higher Education (CCHE) will address questions regarding eligibility for the Baptist Scholarship.

Procedure

Each Financial Aid Office will award the student from the Baptist Scholarship program of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina based upon the process or criteria observed by the college/university that is in line with Baptist State Convention of North Carolina church requirements.

The CCHE will initiate the process to release the funds to the colleges through the Convention's Business Services Office in July and January.

Each college will submit a report to the CCHE that identifies recipients of money from the Baptist Scholarship program of the Convention Special Account, Baptist State Convention. Completed copies of recipients scholarship forms are to be submitted to the CCHE by September 15 for the fall semester and an updated report by March 15 for the spring semester.

Upon receipt of the completed forms, the CCHE will issue a letter to the pastor of the candidate. In addition, the CCHE will issue a press release(s) through the Convention Relations Group announcing the candidate's scholarship award.
