PASSPORT TO FALL marks the beginning of students taking the steps necessary to return for the fall semester. Students who return stamped passports are entered into a drawing for prizes, which include cash awards.

The ACADEMIC AFFAIRS STAFF AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE celebrate excellence by recognizing the outstanding service and contributions among the members of the academic staff and their integral role in advancing the academic mission of the University.

The CAMPUS INTERACTION AWARD focuses on a staff member who not only exceeds expectations within the department but also interacts and provides service campus-wide, creating positive interactions with others and having impact outside of the department.

The COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AWARD focuses on a staff member who has made engagement with the community a central aspect of his or her life.

The JOB PERFORMANCE AWARD focuses on a staff member who excels in all aspects of his or her position, someone who possesses an excellent work ethic and has an extraordinary impact within the department as a role model, connecting with students, staff, faculty, or administrators.

The FACULTY EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD is presented annually to an individual in recognition of his or her involvement with charitable, nonprofit, church, public service, or similar organizations in his or her community; dedication to strengthening the spirit of civic engagement; commitment toward furthering the practice of service learning; participation in the life of the university transcends professional responsibility; and/or contribution of professional expertise in service to the wider community.

The FACULTY ADVISOR OF THE YEAR AWARD is given each year to honor excellence in academic advising. Selection is based on availability to advisees, caring attitude toward advisees, monitoring of student progress toward academic goals, and knowledge of the university's regulations, policies, and procedures.

The recipient of the ALPHA CHI TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD is chosen by students of the university. Selection is based on such factors as dedication to the profession and to students, effectiveness as a teacher, continued professional growth, availability to students, participation in the university's program of extracurricular activities, and relationship with colleagues and students.

COMMENCEMENT MARSHALS are selected from members of the junior class. Selection is based on academic performance and level of engagement in the university community.

The VERA PARKER WOMBLE CHRISTIAN SERVICE AWARD is given to a student in recognition of Christian faith and commitment expressed in service and good works benefiting the University and community, classmates and friends, faculty and staff. The award is named in recognition and memory of Ms. Vera Parker Womble. Ms. Womble was a Murfreesboro native, but lived most of her life in Wilson, North Carolina. She had been the oldest living Chowan alum, being 100 years of age, before her death in 2003. While a student at Chowan, Ms. Womble was an active member of the Lucalian Literary Society the Slim Club, the Chorus Club, Little Sisters, and the Northampton Club. During her 100TH birthday celebration, Ms. Womble was presented the North Carolina Order of the Long Leaf Pine, which is the state's highest citizen award given by the Governor's Office.

The Student Affairs Office presents EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP AWARDS to clubs and organizations.

The ADVISOR AWARD is presented to the club advisor who exemplifies extraordinary leadership and dedication to the students of the organization.

The EMERGING LEADER AWARD is presented to a student who shows outstanding leadership potential through service and dedication but may not hold an officer position in the club or organization.

The OFFICER AWARD is presented to the club officer who best demonstrates leadership abilities and commitment to the organization.

The PRESIDENT AWARD is presented to the president of an organization that best characterizes excellence in leadership, shows commitment to the organization, and possesses the dedication to serve.

The MISSION AND VISION CUP is awarded annually to a campus club or organization that best exemplifies the mission of Chowan and is working in partnership with the University to bring us to our vision.

The R. CLAYTON LEWIS OUTSTANDING RESIDENT ASSISTANT OF THE YEAR AWARD is presented to the resident assistant who has best fulfilled his or her responsibilities of the position. The recipient is evaluated on his or her performance and achievements in leadership, job effectiveness, community service, extra-curricular activities and academic excellence.

The purpose of the SENIOR AMBASSADOR AWARD is to acknowledge student ambassadors for their outstanding service to the University.

The MOST OUTSTANDING ATHLETE AWARDS are made possible by the late Mrs. Dorothy H. Brown of Murfreesboro, a Chowan alumna and a devoted friend of the University.

CHERYL JOY HOBDDAY MCELHENY BUSINESS AWARD is presented annually to the outstanding graduating senior in the School of Business. The recipient has achieved academically, been active in extracurricular activities, and is selected by the business faculty. The award is given in memory of Cheryl Joy Hobdday McElheny, a distinguished alumna and generous supporter of the university.

The DRS. VAUGHN AND MILES OUTSTANDING BUSINESS STUDENT AWARD is presented annually to recognize a student in the School of Business who will graduate within the next two years, has maintained a GPA of 3.0 or greater, made significant contributions in service and citizenship, and is selected by the business faculty. The award was created by Dr. Linda L. Miles, Dean of the School of Business, and her husband, Dr. Richard Vaughn.

The DR. DEJESUS OUTSTANDING STUDENT IN ECONOMICS AWARD is presented annually to a student who has completed a minimum of two economics courses at Chowan with the highest average and has interest in the field of economics. This award was created in honor of Dr. Gladys DeJesus, Distinguished Professor of Economics and a long-time faculty member in the School of Business.

The JOSEPH LEE PARKER SCHOLARSHIP, an endowed scholarship given by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker of Raleigh, North Carolina, is awarded to a rising junior or senior Sport Science student. The recipient must be nominated by the faculty of the department. He or she must be a good role model, demonstrate scholarly pursuits, and show evidence of leadership.

The AMY ROZMUS HAMMOND SCHOLARSHIP is awarded by the faculty to a deserving student pursuing a career in a Sport Sciences related field.

The GARTH D. FAILE BIOLOGY AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES FACULTY AWARD is presented to a biology major who personifies the core mission of the university and the department. The recipient is selected by faculty in the Department of Biology.

The MARY E. WOOD SCIENCE AWARD is given by the faculty of the Department of Biology in memory of Professor Emeritus Mary E. Wood. This award is presented to an outstanding graduate whose major course of study has been biology.

The RAYMOND MEMORIAL SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIP, an endowed scholarship, is awarded to a returning biology student who is selected by the faculty of the Department of Biology as deserving. This scholarship is provided in memory of Mr. John W. Raymond, Sr. and his son, Major John W. Raymond, Jr., who was an Army dentist and Summa Cum Laude Graduate of Chowan in 1970.

The ACHESON HARDEN MATHEMATICS AWARD is made possible through the generosity of Mr. Acheson Harden, a former member of the mathematics faculty. The award is presented to a currently enrolled freshman or sophomore with the highest overall GPA who has completed at least six semester hours of mathematics toward the major, including at least one calculus course.

The SENIOR MATHEMATICS AWARD is made possible through the generosity of Mr. Acheson Harden, a former member of the mathematics faculty. The award is presented to the graduating senior with a major in mathematics who has the highest overall GPA.

The award for the OUTSTANDING FRESHMAN IN ENGLISH AWARD is presented by the Department of English.

The award for OUTSTANDING ENGLISH MAJOR AWARD is given by the Department of English to an outstanding graduating English major who is judged by the English faculty to be the very best.

The OUTSTANDING HISTORY STUDENT AWARD is given annually to the student with a consistently superior record of academic achievement in history. The recipient is judged by the history faculty to be the one student who sets the best example to others striving for excellence in the study of history. The outstanding history student is selected based on superior performance in all academic pursuits, including research, oral communication, and written work.

The CHARLES L. PAUL HISTORY AWARD is presented annually to a candidate for graduation who is majoring in history and is adjudged by the history faculty to have demonstrated outstanding qualities of scholarship and leadership exemplified by a 3.5 GPA or higher in all history courses and an exceptional record of service to the university community and history program.

The ROMEY PEAVLER PSYCHOLOGY STUDENT OF PROMISE AWARD is presented to a psychology major who has shown sincere interest and dedication in the field through research or additional work in applied skills and has helped fellow students either as a tutor, teaching assistant, or in some other notable way. The award was created in memory of Dr. Romey Peavler, former Chairperson and Professor Emeritus of the Department of Psychology.

The PSYCHOLOGY AWARD is presented to an outstanding psychology major based upon academic promise and interest in the discipline. The award is given by the psychology faculty.

To be eligible for the OUTSTANDING CRIMINAL JUSTICE STUDENT AWARD, a student must be a junior or senior criminal justice major and have performed service to the program and University.

The DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION HONOR AWARD is presented to a junior or senior religion major who has performed academically, possesses good character, and participates in religious activities. The recipient is selected by the faculty of the department.

The “ETHICS IN ACTION” AWARD is an annual award to recognize a student who has excelled in promoting ethical values on campus and in the community. The recipient is an individual of the highest moral character and has been an advocate through writing, speech, and deeds for ethical practices and actions. The recipient is selected by the faculty of the Department of Religion.

The EXCELLENCE IN THEATRE AWARD is presented by Theatre@Chowan to an upperclassman who has demonstrated exceptional leadership onstage or behind-the-scenes in Theatre@Chowan productions. The recipient is chosen by the director of the drama program.

Selection for the OUTSTANDING GRADUATE IN GRAPHIC COMMUNICATIONS AWARD is made on the basis of academic achievement, motivation, interest and potential for further growth in the profession.

The OUTSTANDING GRADUATE IN STUDIO ART AWARD is selected by the visual art faculty.

The OUTSTANDING GRADUATE IN GRAPHIC DESIGN AWARD is selected by the visual art faculty.

The DOUG EUBANK AWARD is selected by the visual art faculty and given to a rising sophomore, junior or senior majoring in art who has earned at least a “B” in all classes taken at Chowan, has an overall GPA of 3.0 or better, demonstrates a strong work ethic, produces high quality work in art classes, is active in departmental events and functions, and is a role model for fellow art students.

The JAMES MONROE CHAMBLEE MUSIC AWARD is given annually to a music student who has shown outstanding achievement in music scholarship or musical performance and who has made a significant contribution to the Music Department, the University, and the community through such scholarship or performance.

The School of Education provides the DR. CHARLES BENTLEY OUTSTANDING TEACHER EDUCATION STUDENT AWARD. The criteria for selection include scholarship as evidenced by GPA, personal attributes, educational dispositions, and professionalism.

The Department of Education provides the STUDENT TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD. The criterion for selection includes exemplary performance during the recipient's student-teaching experience, including effective instructional planning, assessment skills, classroom management skills, leadership, and collaboration.

The ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA MARIA LEONARD SENIOR BOOK AWARD is offered by the National Council of Alpha Lambda Delta, which is a national honor society for first-year students, for awarding to the graduating member of the university's chapter with the highest grade point average in his or her class.

The DR. PATRICIA WILLIAMS ALPHA CHI CHAPTER MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD is a national award to recognize an outstanding officer, senior leader, or other Alpha Chi star at campus award ceremonies.

The CHOWAN UNIVERSITY STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE honor students for outstanding presentations in each one of the conference's categories. By the quality of their participation, these students exemplify what is best in the intellectual and artistic life of Chowan University.

The ORDER OF THE SILVER FEATHER is an honorary service fraternity, the purpose of which is to give recognition to those students who have been especially outstanding in their service to the campus community and whose loyalty to Chowan University has been extremely noteworthy. The recipient of the Estelle Thigpen Superior Citizenship Award is automatically inducted.

The FAITH IN YOUR FUTURE AWARD is presented annually to a student who best exemplifies the university's mission and vision by consistently demonstrating the ability to achieve his or her greatest potential in learning and service to the Chowan community.

The MERIT AWARD is presented to a graduating senior judged to have achieved at a high academic level in spite of obstacles which would have deterred or defeated a less determined or devoted individual.

The ESTELLE THIGPEN SUPERIOR CITIZENSHIP AWARD is provided to recognize that student who has been an outstanding citizen within the university community throughout the year. This award is given for the contribution of time, effort, and energy for the benefit of the student body.

The BEST ALL AROUND STUDENT must be a graduating senior who has achieved academically, excelled in extra-curricular activities, exhibited leadership ability among his or her fellow students, and sought to attain the ideals - academic and otherwise - for which the university stands.

The MCDOWELL COLUMNS SCHOLAR PRIZE is presented to a faculty member for his or her scholarly and/or creative activities during the previous academic year. The prize was presented in November 2020 to Dr. Kyung-Hoon Lee.

The recipient of the FACULTY EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARD is chosen by his or her colleagues on the faculty of the University. Selection is based on such factors as dedication to the profession and to students, effectiveness as a teacher, continued professional growth, availability to students, participation in the University's program of extracurricular activities, and relationship with colleagues and students. This award will be presented at Commencement on May 9.

The SENIOR SCHOLASTIC AWARD is the most prestigious award the Chowan academic community bestows. To be eligible for this award, an undergraduate student must have earned at least ninety credit hours at Chowan University and have achieved the highest academic average in the graduating class. This award will be presented at Commencement on May 9.

The HONORS COLLEGE is designed to offer attractive and challenging opportunities for intellectual growth to well-prepared and highly motivated students.

PRESIDENTIAL AMBASSADORS promote the positive image of the University by engaging student leaders to represent the Office of the President at designated events and leadership development opportunities. Members of this group are highly-skilled and experienced student leaders selected to represent the University on a volunteer basis.

CHOWAN CHRISTIAN SERVICE SCHOLARS are a select group of students who are preparing for Christian vocational ministry.

Each year, a select group of students is called forward to accept one of the most prestigious awards the academic and student life community can bestow — selection for the OUTSTANDING STUDENT AWARDS.

CHOWAN FELLOWS are a select group of students who promote leadership, service, professional preparation, and cultural literacy.

LEADERSHIP SCHOLARS are a select group of students who have demonstrated exemplary leadership, academic achievement, and service prior to their enrollment at Chowan.

GRADUATING STUDENT-ATHLETES represent students who competed for a sponsored Chowan University athletic team and remained in good standing athletically, socially, and academically throughout their Chowan career.
