INTRODUCTION

Recognizing the changing ways students access information and in order to conserve resources the Chowan Student Handbook has been significantly redesigned. Much of the information you as students need is on the university’s web site or other electronically accessible sites. Complete information about the Chowan’s Academic Program is contained in the university catalog.

This handbook contains policies administered by the department of Student Affairs as well as information that the university is required to communicate to students in this publication. As a member of the university community you are expected to familiarize yourself with the information contained in this handbook and to follow the policies contained within the handbook.

Lets go CU Hawks!
Dear Chowan University Student,

It is with great enthusiasm that I extend a welcome to you on behalf of the entire Chowan University community. If you are new to the Chowan family, I want to assure you that you are joining a group of individuals who are serious about academic pursuits, but equally serious about being faithful to the call God has placed upon them.

For more than 171 years, the people of Chowan University have distinguished themselves by their care for each other. We are so pleased that you have decided to be a part of the next chapter in this great university’s story.

Chowan is first, and foremost, a Christian University and will continue to remain true to this bedrock principle. The Christian character is interwoven throughout the history of Chowan, from the inception in 1848 as Chowan Baptist Female Institute to today as we proudly proclaim that we have Faith in the Future in our students and our University.

All students bring a diverse background of faith and experiences. All individuals who attend, support, or instruct are given a multitude of opportunities to celebrate their faith walk, which we pray ends in embracing Jesus Christ.

In the midst of unprecedented times and as we all stay “Chowan Strong and Safer Together,” I urge each of you to practice social distancing, use proper hygiene, and wear face coverings. We have employed new methods and protocols to keep our students, faculty, staff, and university community safe. It will take each of us to make this a reality! We are asking that each of you submit daily health checks and attend classes in the traditional, hybrid, and online formats. We are requiring each Chowan University student, faculty, and staff member to demonstrate self-discipline because our diligence and proactive actions can help all of us remain healthy.

I expect you to get involved; it is your responsibility to be a good student, a committed student-athlete, a good neighbor, an understanding roommate, and a contributing citizen. It is also your job to find happiness and become champions in body, mind, and soul.

As students, you are responsible for balancing the classroom, athletics, arts and club participation, for the classroom nourishes your mind, competition nourishes your body, and the arts nourish your soul.

I pray you are transformed by your time at Chowan. As faculty, staff, and administrators, we commit ourselves to your advancement through our teaching, learning, engaging, and serving. As President of Chowan University, I want to invite you to come to my office in the Columns Building and let me know how you are doing. I want to get to know each of you. Please know how deeply honored I am to serve as president of this wonderful university.

Sincerely Yours,

Kirk E. Peterson, Ph.D.
President, Chowan University
Welcome to Chowan!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Chowan University. The 2020-2021 year will be different in many ways. COVID 19 has required us to rethink how we deliver our services to students. Your patience is requested as we navigate unchartered events together. I have chosen to work in higher education because I enjoy assisting students and their families as they pursue a college education.

The excitement and disappointments of life are both part of the collegiate experience. Chowan University gives students the privilege of being supported through the process. There are community principles which all members are expected to embrace. Chowan University is a community that nurtures the growth and development of leaders with integrity and decency displayed towards themselves and others.

Respect for persons and property is an expectation of the Chowan University community. Members of the “CU” community are expected at all times to demonstrate respect for themselves and toward others. All members of the community are entitled to and responsible for maintaining an environment of civility that is free from disparagement, intimidation, harassment and violence of any kind.

The liberal arts tradition has as a fundamental foundation an environment in which all ideas can be proposed reasonably and examined critically. We realize that the free exchange of ideas and expression may produce conflict. This is an important element in the pursuit of knowledge. However, we expect members of this community to dissent and demonstrate in a peaceful and non-disruptive manner without unreasonable obstruction or hindrance to others. We can agree to disagree without being disagreeable.

In this community of learners, academic excellence through active learning is another expectation. We all have responsibilities for and rights to learning, teaching, and scholarship. Members of this community are responsible for recognizing and avoiding violations of academic integrity, such as cheating, plagiarizing, and stealing another’s work.

It is my pleasure to serve as your Vice President for Student Affairs. I am here to assist you in this experience. Please stop by my office in Penny Hall or join me for a meal in the dining hall. I am looking forward to an exciting and productive year together.

Happy Learning!

Montrose A. Streeter
Vice President for Student Affairs

Revised as of 6/1/2020 | Academic Calendar subject to change.
CHOWAN UNIVERSITY is the second oldest of North Carolina’s seven Baptist universities. It opened in 1848 as Chowan Baptist Female Institute, a four-year college for women. It was renamed Chowan College in 1910, admitted male students in 1931, and became a two-year institution in 1937. In 1992, the college returned to four-year status when it admitted a junior class. In 2005, the Board of Trustees voted unanimously to move Chowan to university status.

The university continues to expand its academic program and to recruit well qualified faculty. At the same time, it continues to appreciate its identity as a small, church-related institution whose people know each other. The university attempts to provide an environment that is comfortable and conducive to intellectual, social, and spiritual growth. The administration and faculty believe in and insist upon intellectual freedom, while continuing the commitment to Christian principles. Chowan University does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, age, creed, national origin, or handicap in its policies concerning employment, admission, housing, scholarships, and grants-in-aid, and public functions.

Mission Statement
CHOWAN UNIVERSITY, grounded in its Christian faith, transforms the lives of students of promise.

The University fosters its mission by:

› ensuring its Christian character informs all its endeavors.
› equipping undergraduate and graduate students with the knowledge, skills, and ethical values necessary to flourish in a culturally diverse, global society.
› promoting active participation in discovery and creative activities.
› providing a supportive teaching and learning environment.
› enrolling and retaining promising students of all backgrounds.
› meeting the students’ social and spiritual needs by affording personal attention in a caring community.
› cultivating relationships with students, alumni, churches, corporations, foundations, and other stakeholders.
› maintaining stewardship of its physical, financial, and human resources.
› offering intercollegiate athletic programs that enhance the academic and personal development of all student-athletes while promoting individual and team success.

ACCREDITATION: (Chowan University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097: Telephone 404.679.4501) to award Bachelor and Master’s degrees.

FOUNDED: 1848, as Chowan Baptist Female Institute, renamed Chowan College in 1910.

STUDENT POPULATION:

The Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees is the governing body of Chowan University. The Board operates the University as an agency of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and in accordance with policies adopted by the Convention. Further, the Board shall report to the Convention as often as may be required.

The Board of Visitors

The Board of Visitors of Chowan University is a group of outstanding men and women who enjoy positions of leadership and influence in their respective communities as well as on a regional or national level. Members show an interest in the program of the university and are informed about its accomplishments and objectives.
The Mace
Originally a stout club or weapon, the mace was converted by the early Romans into an emblem of power and control. Use of the mace in the parliament of England dates from the twelfth century when medieval universities also adopted the mace as a symbol of order and authority. The modern mace continues to signify dignity and authority and usually leads academic processions at formal convocations and commencements, and its placement and removal from a position of honor indicate the opening and closing of ceremonial sessions.

The Chowan University mace is crafted into three sections of staff, sphere, and finial and made of walnut, ornamented with gold and silver. The staff is a fluted column representing historic McDowell Columns Building and the pillars of Chowan University support: North Carolina Baptists, students, parents, faculty, staff, alumni, friends, trustees and visitors. On the front side of the column's capital is the Chowan University seal and on the reverse side are the Greek symbols for Christian: chi and rho, alpha and omega, symbols representing the Christian heritage of Chowan University. The Latin words trivium and quadrivium appear on the remaining sides, words suggesting the several liberal arts as well as the two divisions of education in Roman schools. The sphere of the mace symbolizes Chowan’s universal concerns, the representative student body, and her holistic approach to education. Finally, the third section of the mace called the finial is comprised of a band and flame, the latter portraying the Chowan experience as a source of intelligent and spiritual illumination.

The Chowan University mace was wrought by George Cloyd of Colonial Williamsburg. The mace was endowed by former trustee and Chowan staff member R. Clayton Lewis in honor of his wife, Mary Alice Lewis.

The Chain of Office
Chowan University’s Chain of Office is approximately 38 inches long. Each link in the chain represents a part of the institution. At the center is the seal of the university mounted on a base of wood salvaged from a McDowell Columns Building renovation. The triangular shape of the base suggests the Trinity. The chain links are sterling and of the Old World continuous knot design. This pattern is reminiscent of early Christian art in Ireland. The hand-engraved seal, also of sterling, is round with the name of the university and the date of its founding placed on a ring at its edge. In the center are the Latin words Lux et Veritas and symbols depicting the school’s mission and its religious affiliation. The chain was wrought by George Cloyd of Colonial Williamsburg.

Academic Regalia of the Chowan University Faculty
Since its origin over 600 years ago at Oxford and Cambridge Universities, the custom of wearing academic regalia at such events as college and university convocations and graduations has remained relatively unchanged with regard to the actual apparel to include gowns, hoods, mortarboards, tassels, and other designated emblems. One symbolic reason for so little change in the regalia is that wearing such denotes a devotion to the qualities of serious study and disciplined persistence toward academic excellence which have remained the mainstay of reputable educational institutions.

With a few exceptions, gowns are by and large still black and are of three types: the bachelor’s gown is a simple apparel which falls in straight lines from detailed yoke; the master’s gown is similar to the bachelor’s except for its unique arrangement of long sleeves with square ends which hang well below the elbows; the doctor’s gown is very detailed, as a full-cut, flowing costume distinguished by the velvet panels down the front and around the neck and by three velvet bars on each of the bell-shaped sleeves.

Originally conceived as a garment to protect the wearer from inclement weather, the hood has become the identifying symbol of the wearer’s degree. The length of the hood denotes the degree the wearer holds: three feet for the bachelor’s degree, three and a half for the master’s, and four for the doctorate. The linings of these hoods indicate the colleges or universities which conferred the degrees. Whereas, the linings indicate the institutions, the colors of the trimming indicate the major field of learning: white for arts, pink for music, drab for business, silver-gray for speech, dark blue for philosophy, sage green for physical education, golden yellow for science, cream for social science, scarlet for theology, lemon for library science, copper for economics, and light blue for education.
THE ALMA MATER

On the plains of Carolina
'Neath her skies so blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view.

With her classic walls and columns
Looks she proudly down,
Reared against the arch of heaven,
With the stars for crown.

By Meherrin's rippling waters
Where the sunbeams play,
We, her loyal sons and daughters,
Pledge our love for aye.

Praise to her! God grant His blessings,
May He give rich store.
Chowan we will ever cherish,
Love her ever more.

Origin
Alma Mater is an expression used by a student or graduate to refer to his/her college or university. The Latin words mean “fostering mother.” The Romans often used the words in speaking of some of their goddess, such as Ceres and Cybele. The expression came to be applied to universities during the Middle Ages. Students probably first used it in this way at the University of Bonn in Germany. A statue of the Virgin Mary at Bonn was called Alma Mater, or Beloved Mother.

Melody
The source of Chowan’s Alma Mater melody is unknown. One of its first uses was as a fraternity song, associated with the Fraternity, Theta Psi. Its first application as a school song was probably at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. Cornell is on the banks of Lake Cayuga, and appropriately enough, the song began “Far above Cayuga’s waters...” Since its adoption by Cornell, it has been used by countless other schools, the most familiar in North Carolina being the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Lyrics
Chowan University has always been a school with music. In 1890, Anne Abernathy, one of the students, wrote the lyrics to Chowan’s Alma Mater, which has continued to be “Alma Mater” through the succeeding years.

THE FIGHT SONG

Hail Chowan
Lyrics: John A. Hinton, May 2009
Tune: “Semper Paratus” - Frances Van Boskerck

Now let’s show our Chowan pride.
The hawks have come to play.
The spirit soars above our team
We’ll surely win this day.

Fight, till it’s over, mighty hawks.
Fight on for old CU
With spirits brave and hearts on fire
Hail, Chowan, the white and blue.

Now let’s show our Chowan pride.
The hawks have come to play.
The spirit soars above our team
We’ll surely win this day.

Fight, till it’s over, mighty hawks.
Fight on for old CU
With spirits brave and hearts on fire
Hail, Chowan, the white and blue.

Whitaker Library Conduct Policy
Adopted: June 7, 2006
Updated: June 11, 2012

Institutional Goals (From the Chowan University Catalog)
» To promote throughout the campus an environment that is conducive to study and learning.

The library is an extension of the classroom and thus appropriate behavior is expected here as well. Consider the following:
› Use appropriate behavior at all times
› Use appropriate language at all times
› Present ID if requested
› Be respectful of library staff members
› Use library computers as outlined in the university computer use policy

Conduct violations will follow the procedures and appeals set forth in the policy on Classroom Conduct, and also the policy in the student handbook under Student Guidelines and Expectations.

FINANCIAL AID

Under guidance from the Director of Financial Aid, the University operates a comprehensive student financial aid program. Those who need financial aid to meet university expenses should contact a member of the financial aid staff to obtain the necessary forms to apply for aid.

The purpose of the financial aid program at Chowan University is to help students who cannot afford to go to college finance their education through a variety of scholarships, grants, loans, and/or part-time employment. Applications for financial aid are evaluated without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, or sex. To receive financial aid, a student must be making satisfactory academic progress as stated in the Chowan University Handbook. Financial aid is not automatically renewed from one year to the next. Reapply by completing the FAFSA on October 1st each year.

Students Must Apply Each Year!

Some restrictions apply: Recipients of University funded scholarships and/or grants are not allowed to receive total scholarships and grants from all sources in excess of their university charges plus an allowance for books and supplies. University funded scholarships and grants are not available for summer school.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Complete and file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA is available in any high school counselor's office, in the Chowan University Financial Aid Office, and at www.fafsa.gov. This information is used to determine how much the student and parent(s) can afford for educational expenses. The FAFSA opens October 1st of each year. Applications filed before May 1 have priority.

Change in Financial Status

In certain cases, the current day income and household status may be different than what was reported on the FAFSA. Examples of such are:
› Loss of Income or job
› Significant reduction in income
› Parent Retirement
› Divorce, separation, or death of parent or spouse
› One time distribution from IRA or pension account
› Unusually high out-of-pocket medical expenses
› Other extenuating circumstances

In this instance, the Financial Aid Office can review certain tax records, current income, and other documents to determine if a change to the FAFSA will benefit the student and make them eligible for additional assistance. Please contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss in more detail.

Financial Obligation

Each student is responsible for making appropriate financial plans to meet their obligations to the University and community. Financial plans are arranged with the Business Office. Arrangements may include but are not limited to monthly payment plans, semester payment plans, additional financing agreements via federal and outside loan agencies. Failure to successfully meet financial plan arrangements may result in removed room assignments and schedules, transcript holds, and suspension from the University. For more information or to set up a financial plan, please contact the Business Office.

Institutional Charge Reduction Policy
Registration in the University is considered a contract binding the student for charges for the entire semester. However, it is the policy of Chowan University to give a pro-rata charge reduction through 60% of the enrollment period in the event a student OFFICIALLY WITHDRAWS from school. (See the Withdrawal Policy under Academic Regulations.) An official Withdrawal Form must be completed and turned into the Registrar’s Office in order for a student to be officially withdrawn. The official withdrawal date is the date this process is completed.

Reductions will be computed on total charges for tuition, and residential charges but not on fees. Students leaving school for disciplinary reasons will not be eligible for any reduction and will be liable for the entire semester’s charges. Undergraduate Day Program students registered for 12 or more hours who drop a course(s) after the last day of registration will not receive a pro-rata refund for individual classes that are dropped. Students charged on a per-hour basis may receive a pro-rata refund for classes that are dropped.

For purposes of interpreting this policy the pro-rata charge reduction percentage is equal to the number of calendar days (excluding breaks of five days or more) remaining in the semester divided by the number of calendar days in the semester. No charge reduction will be given after the 60% period of enrollment for the semester.

Financial Aid Reduction Policy
When a student changes enrollment status, Federal, State, Institutional, and Non-institutional Aid may be adjusted. In the event a full-time student ceases attending classes, financial aid will be adjusted according to Institutional, State and Federal policies. Federal regulations require a return or pro-rata reduction of Title IV funds if a student withdraws or ceases to attend classes up through 60% of the enrollment period. Title IV reductions will be calculated using the last known date of attendance at an academically related event. If the last date of attendance cannot be determined, the reduction will be calculated using the mid-point of the semester.

Financial aid reductions may affect the balance or amount owed on the student’s account.

For more information regarding Withdrawal or Change of Enrollment Policies contact the Financial Aid Office or the Business Office.

The Helms Center

In 1977 the Helms Center was constructed and became a new home to the volleyball team, as well as the men’s and women’s basketball programs. In the winter of 2015 the court was named after Coach Bob Burke, who coached at Chowan for over 20 years. The Helms Center seats 2,500 people with stadium seating, meaning there is never a bad seat in the house. Being able to convert into three full sized basketball or volleyball courts, makes it comfortable to host tournaments and events. In 2009 the gymnasium underwent large-scale restorations that included the painting and resurfacing of the main court, painting the interior walls, new wall padding, and the addition of a modernized P.A. and sound system.

The building also has recently added indoor batting cages, a new renovated swimming pool, a training room, and locker rooms to house both home and away teams. The Helms Center also serves as the office center for the athletic department administration and many of the team’s coaches.

GREEN HALL ART GALLERY

The Green Hall Art Gallery presents a number of exhibitions throughout the academic year. The Gallery hosts invitational, competitive, and student shows. Hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. The Department of Visual Art announces exhibit openings, and artist receptions throughout the academic year.

MUSIC & DRAMA PRODUCTIONS

Turner Auditorium of the McDowell Columns building hosts two major theatrical productions, fall and spring. All Chowan University students are welcome to participate on stage, backstage, ushering, or as audience members. Other opportunities for experiencing theatre exist during the year.

POST OFFICE/CAMPUS MAIL SERVICE

Student and Club/Organization mailboxes are located in the Hawks Nest Student Center. Chowan University requires all students to have a campus mailbox. At the beginning a student’s first semester, Service Enterprises assigns a mailbox to all students, including commuters. Students will retain this mailbox for the duration of their time at Chowan. If the student is unable to attend check-in, he/she should stop by Service Enterprises at his/her earliest convenience to be assigned one. The operating hours are 8:30 am - 5:00 pm. Address all student mail and packages in the following manner to ensure timely and proper delivery:

(Student’s Name)
Chowan University
One University Place
Box#: __________
Murfreesboro, NC 27855

The Service Enterprises staff delivers mail to student mailboxes by 2:00 p.m. each day except Sunday and during student holidays. Students receiving parcel post packages by either of the following delivery firms (U.S. Mail, UPS, FedEx, or Airborne Express) will have a notice slip placed in their mailbox instructing them to pick up their package(s) at Service Enterprises, located in the annex below Thomas Dining Hall. Students must present their ID to claim their packages. Stamps are available for purchase at Service Enterprise, cash sales only. Outgoing mail must be in Service Enterprise by 3 pm, Monday through Friday.

NOTE: Please DO NOT SEND CASH through the mail!!!
In order to receive mail during the summer months or after withdrawal during an academic year, students should supply a forwarding address to the Student Enterprises staff. Faculty/Staff members frequently communicate with students through CALL-IN SLIPS, placed in the student mailboxes. STUDENTS WHO RECEIVE CALL-IN SLIPS SHOULD REPORT IMMEDIATELY TO THE OFFICE OF THE FACULTY OR STAFF MEMBER.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

In 1852, Chowan University welcomed its first graduate to the alumni body. Today, the officially recognized “Chowan University Alumni Association” represents an organization of over 11,000 members and serves as a vital link between Chowan University Alumni and the University, its trustees, visitors, administrative staff, faculty, and students.

Membership
Membership is automatic upon: graduation from Chowan University; voluntary withdrawal while eligible to return and having completed at least one semester under a two-year program, or two semesters under a four-year program. While the Association encourages all alumni to make an annual contribution to the University’s Alumni Loyalty Fund, no fee or contribution is required for membership.

Organization
An executive committee known as the “Alumni Board of Directors” represents the Association, whose general membership is composed of all members of the alumni body who meet the above membership requirements. The Alumni Board of Directors is composed of the association president, president-elect, secretary, past-president, directors, and representatives of the University and current student body. Officers are elected to one-year terms and directors are elected to rotating four-year terms. The University’s Director of Alumni Services and the Presidents of the current student classes serve on the Board in an ex-officio capacity. The Board provides leadership and decision making in implementing the Alumni Program and conducts business on behalf of the Association between annual meetings. For additional information, please contact the Director of Alumni Relations at ext. 6226.

In addition, the out-of-class student work will approximate a minimum of 4 hours each week. Perspectives events are also incorporated into the class.

Glossary

» Out-of-class student work: homework, reading, and study time; time completing assignments and projects.

Disclaimer

This syllabus is intended to give the student guidance in what may be covered during the semester and will be followed as closely as possible. However, the professor reserves the right to modify, supplement and make changes as the course needs arise.

Course Description

The purpose of this two-semester sequence is to assist students in making a successful transition to Chowan University. The guiding principles of this sequence are to help students become part of the campus community; foster personal, social and academic growth; and develop the skills necessary to be a successful college student. In this sequence, students will develop “A Sense of Capability” by building academic skills. Students will develop “A Sense of Academic Culture” by familiarizing themselves with Chowan University and university culture in general. Students will develop “A Sense of Purpose” through an exploration of why they are at the University. Students will develop “A Sense of Resourcefulness” by learning how to navigate the University to seek help and information. Finally, students will develop “A Sense of Connectedness” to the University by learning about and/or participating in CU’s rich academic, social, cultural, and spiritual communities.

In this first course of the sequence students will be expected to “Join In” by attending Perspective events and writing a reflection of their experience. In addition, students will assemble in to groups to research and then present on various topics related to the history of Chowan, its mission, and its various academic departments, clubs and organizations. Students will also work with the College Success textbook to build skills needed in the college classroom such as note-taking and studying for exams. In addition, students will vote on a common reader that will be explored in the second course of the sequence.

Grade Breakdown CU 101:

| Decorum | 50 points* |
| Group Presentation | 150 points |
| Joining-In | 150 points |
| Final Reflection | 100 points |
| Class Assignments | 300 points |
| Total | 750 points |

*(25 points possible at entered at midterm and end)

Decorum: Decorum is another way of saying that a students presence in the class is such that their manner of dress, behavior, and language are appropriate for an academic environment, such as the classroom. Students are expected to come to class on time, prepared, and willing to participate. Students will avoid distractions such as engaging in casual conversations or texting on their cell phones. Most importantly, students work together and create a respectful, productive, and supportive learning environment. For more information, see “Student Rights, Guidelines and Expectations” starting on page 177 in the Student Handbook. https://www.chowan.edu/sites/chowan.edu/files/www/related-files-files/complete_hb_12.20.pdf
Joining-In: Throughout the semester students will be asked to “Join In” by participating in Perspectives. The purpose of Perspectives is to enrich the intellectual, cultural, and spiritual development of students beyond the classroom. The program allows students to develop new perspectives by providing them with opportunities to explore issues of current interest, deepen their awareness of the arts, learn about cultural activities they may not have considered otherwise, discover a variety of disciplines, strengthen their understanding of faith and its diversities, grow toward spiritual maturity, celebrate the achievements of others, and develop an appreciation for the concept of campus community.

Perspectives includes a broad selection of events throughout the academic year, including worship experiences, lectures, convocations, plays, concerts and art exhibits. A calendar of Perspectives events is distributed to each student at the beginning of each semester, and is also available online at: https://chowan.edu/sites/chowan.edu/files/www/related-files-files/perspectives_spring_2018.pdf.

During the semester, Perspectives events may be added. These events will be promoted by e-mail and the Perspectives online calendar. A typical semester calendar includes 15-20 events available for students to fulfill their Joining In requirements. Students are encouraged to attend academic events, cultural programs, and worship services outside the college and within campus organizations. However, the Joining-In credit is only for those events that are recognized as part of the Perspectives Program.

Students must attend a minimum of five (5) events during the semester. Attendance is recorded by the scanning of student ID cards. Students can monitor their attendance at Perspectives events on MyCU www.mycu.chowan.edu.

To receive credit in the course, students must attend events and record their attendance by scanning their ID. Then students will write a guided reflection to be submitted to Blackboard. These reflections will be due at various points throughout the semester and will be listed on the syllabus and/or on Blackboard.

Final Reflection: Students will be asked to write a guided reflection on their transition to becoming university students. They will be asked to include a selection of their Joining In reflections and other work throughout the semester as part of the submission process.
2. Withdrawal Policy
   › As stated in the Chowan University Catalog, “A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the University must initiate official withdrawal process in the Office of the Registrar. Honorable dismissal will not be granted without official withdrawal. Students who withdraw from the University during the first three weeks of the semester will have no record of the courses taken.” For additional information, please consult the Office of the Registrar or the Chowan University Catalog.
   › Abandoning a course—when a student simply stops attending class—should be avoided at all costs. By policy faculty members cannot withdraw students from a class and are required to record a grade of ‘F’ for students who stop coming to class but who do not officially withdraw. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate and complete the withdrawal process.

3. Incompletes
   › As stated in the Chowan University Catalog, “The grade of I is recorded only in the case of illness or emergency that results in the student’s not being able to complete work in a course. The assignment of an ‘I’ must be approved by the Vice President for Academic Affairs. It is the student’s responsibility to arrange for completion of the work. If the work is not completed before the end of the next semester, a grade of F is recorded for the course.”

4. Attendance and Tardy Policy
   › Regular attendance is required. On the seventh (7th) excused and/or unexcused absence in a TH course or the tenth (10th) excused and/or unexcused absence in a MWF course, a student will receive a failing grade. I will be keeping track of absences through Aviso, so you should have easy access to the number of absences you’ve accrued in the course. This will allow you to monitor your attendance all semester so that you should not have any problems with overcutting the course.

5. Statement on Late or Missed Assignments
   › All assignments are due at the beginning of class. When roll is called, assignments will be collected. If you do not turn in the paper at roll call, it will be considered late. Blackboard assignment will close at the start of class they are due.

6. Academic Integrity
   › As stated in the Chowan University Catalog: Chowan University is committed to the principles of academic integrity. Every member of the Chowan community is expected to uphold the Honor Code: “As members of the Chowan University community, we demonstrate our commitment to justice and fairness by holding ourselves to the highest of standards, demanding academic integrity from all members of our campus culture.” The faculty and administration of Chowan University view academic cheating as a serious matter that cannot be tolerated. Cheating refers to using or attempting to use unauthorized information during any academic pursuit. Fabrication, collusion, and plagiarism are regarded as forms of cheating. Fabrication is regarded as the falsifying of information or citations. Collusion is interpreted as two or more students working together in order to practice dishonesty or deception. Plagiarism is the presentation of work (for example, words, concepts, ideas, or graphics) of another as his or her own work without properly citing the source. Assisting or attempting to assist another to cheat and submitting previously submitted work are considered academic cheating as well. [http://catalog.chowan.edu]

7. Submission of Essays and other Assignments
   › I will only accept essays and assignments posted through Blackboard. I do not accept emailed work or hard copies unless other arrangements have been made.
   › Papers must be completed in Microsoft Word format and uploaded to Blackboard. The document should be saved by your last name and the assignment. MLA formatting is always required. Discussion boards may be posted directly in the comments box on Blackboard. Discussion boards, like all assignments, still require MLA documentation, even when using our book.
   › If you are unsure about how to upload files, there are many videos available on YouTube.

8. Classroom Code of Conduct
   › The Chowan policy for physical classrooms also applies to our election one: “All students are expected to behave in a mature and orderly manner. Disruptive and/or disorderly conduct will not be tolerated in the classrooms or laboratories of Chowan University. After appropriate warning, an instructor may dismiss from class or laboratory a student whose conduct is, in his or her opinion, disruptive. In the case of a grievous offense, a student may be dismissed without prior warning. Such students will not be permitted re-entry into the class until clearance is obtained from the faculty member, the appropriate departmental chairperson, school dean, and/or the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Absences incurred during a dismissal from class will be recorded as unexcused.” [http://catalog.chowan.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=67]

Electronic Communication:
› Chowan University email is the official means of communication with all members of the university community. Students are responsible for reading Chowan emails on a daily basis.
› Students are responsible for visiting the Blackboard course site for course announcement, course changes, grades, etc., on a daily basis.
› Students can view midterm grades and final grades on MyCU.
› Aviso is a program used by Chowan University in a variety of ways, including reporting attendance and academic performance, to assist students in achieving their educational goals.

HawksCard

The University is pleased to introduce a new one card ID system named the “HawksCard.” Your HawksCard has many uses. In addition to being your primary means of personal identification on campus, your HawksCard will be used for:

- Entry access to your residence hall, the Jenkins Center, Perspectives, and checking out materials in the Whitaker Library.
- Meal plans and Dining $
- Laundry Services and Laundry $

Entry Access

Your HawksCard is now used as your access key to your residence hall. To open an exterior door of your residence hall, you simply tap your card on the card reader near the door and the locking mechanism on the door will be released for a short period of time. Remember, do not prop open the exterior doors of your residence hall as you are compromising the safety and security of the entire building. Your HawksCard ID will also be required to enter into the Jenkins Center, to check out games and equipment in the Hawks Nest and the Jenkins Center, to record your attendance at Perspectives, and to check out books in Whitaker Library.

Meal Plans and Dining $

The University has added Dining$ to each of its basic board plans, including a new 10 Meal Plan created for, and limited to, residents of Whites Crossing. Dining$ can be used at your discretion in the cafeteria or Murf’s. Additional information about meal plans and Dining$ can be found on pages 43 and 44 of the Academic Catalog. (Note: Dining$ does not carry forward from semester to semester and are non-refundable to the student.)

Laundry Services and Laundry $

The University has installed new washers and dryers in all residence hall laundry rooms. These machines can be activated in any one of three methods: 1) use of Laundry$ from your HawksCard 2) use of HawksBucks.

HawksBucks from your HawksCard, or 3) quarters. Each residential student, excluding those living in the Whites Crossing apartment (Bldg. B), will receive $45 worth of Laundry$ per semester on their HawksCard(ID Card). These Laundry $ can only be used to operate washers and dryers in the residence hall laundry facilities. If Laundry $ have been expended, HawksBucks, if available, will automatically be deducted to complete the transaction. Note: Unused “Laundry$” are non-refundable and will not carry forward from semester to semester.

Another laundry related feature that the University has added is called “Laundry View”. This feature allows you to check on the availability of a washer or dryer from the web. You can also use Laundry View to see if your wash or dry cycle is completed. You can access “Laundry View” by going to http://www.laundryview.com and clicking on your residence hall. If you want to access Laundry View using a mobile device, go to http://laundryview.com/chowan.

Hawk Flight Book Rental Program

The Hawk Flight Book Rental Program is a low cost program that allows students to rent all required books/access codes for the semester. Full-time students cost $275 per semester and part-time students cost $135 per semester.

Students are automatically enrolled into the Hawk Flight Book Rental Program and must opt out via the MyCU portal by August 1st (fall) and January 1st (spring), in order to not participate or be charged for the upcoming semester. The rental books will be available for students to pick up during their check-in process and are to be return at their final exam. Opting-out of the Hawk Flight Book Rental Program does not relieve student’s obligation to have the required books/access codes for their registered courses.

HawksCard Care

Your student ID is a contactless smartcard that contains an integrated chip(s) and antenna(s). Due to the internal components of the card certain handling guidelines should be followed. Failure to follow these guidelines may compromise the performance of the embedded technology.

DO NOT:

› Bend, bite, or twist the card
› Carry the card unprotected in your pocket or backpack
› Wash in a laundry machine
› Expose to extreme heat of any kind including clothes dryers, clothes irons, direct sunlight, or open flame
› Place within a metal phone case or next to a metal phone.
› Punch holes in the card at any time
› Immerse in alcohol, isopropyl, ethanol, or methyl
› Expose to organic solvents, thinners, or mineral spirits

Do:

› Place the card inside a plastic or rubberized protector, including a phone case, card holder, or wallet that is not metal. While the typical read range is 1-2 inches, placing the card inside a thick wallet may slightly shorten the range.
› Clean with a soft, non-scratching cloth and water as needed.

FERPA

The Family Education Right and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student’s education records. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children’s education records at Chowan University. These rights transfer to the student, or former student, once he or she becomes an “eligible student” by beginning to attend Chowan University.

» Eligible Students have the right to inspect and review all of their education records maintained by the university. This right may be exercised by making a written or verbal request to the Registrar. The university generally is not required to provide copies of materials in the education record; it may charge a fee for copies.

» Eligible Students have the right to request that the university correct records believed to be inaccurate or misleading. This right may be exercised by making a written request to the Registrar. If the university decides not to amend the record, the Eligible Student then has the right to a formal hearing.
After the hearing, if the university still decides not to amend the record, the Eligible Student has the right to place a statement with the record commenting on the contested information.

Generally, the university must have written permission from the Eligible Student before releasing any information from the student’s record. However, the law allows the university to disclose records, without consent, to the following parties:

- Either or both parents of a dependent student, as defined in section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. (Payment of tuition is not sufficient proof that a student is a dependent.)
- University officials who have a legitimate educational interest as determined by university policy and administered by the Registrar (see Definitions below).
- Other schools or universities to which a student is transferring.
- Certain government officials in order to carry out lawful functions.
- Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student.
- Organizations conducting certain studies for the university.
- Accrediting organizations.
- Individuals who have obtained court orders or subpoenas.
- Persons who need to know in cases of health and safety emergencies.
- State and local authorities within a juvenile justice system.

The university may also disclose, without consent, “directory information.” The university considers the following items to be directory information: name, class, photograph(s), full-time or half-time status, home town and state, university e-mail address, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, degrees honors and awards, and dates of attendance.

An Eligible Student may notify the university in writing that the university may not release any or all of the information categorized as directory information without prior consent. This notice must be given annually, and must be received by the Registrar’s office before the end of the first week of the academic year.

An Eligible Student may notify the university in writing at any time during a given academic year that his/her e-mail address should not be listed in the university’s public access e-mail directory. Such notification shall remain in effect until the beginning of the next academic year.

Eligible Students may file a complaint with the Department of Education concerning alleged failures of the university to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

University Official: a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a company with whom the university has contracted, e.g., attorney, auditor, collection agent; a member of the Board of Trustees or Board of Visitors; a student employee; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

Legitimate Educational Interest: A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

Student Complaint Procedure

Chowan University is committed to providing students with a means for sharing their concerns and officially registering complaints about any academic programing student services, or university process.

The student must submit the completed form to the office of the Vice President of the area of complaint checked above. If the student does not know where to submit the form, he or she should submit it to the Office of the Provost (third floor, Columns Hall).

The form can be found at https://www.chowan.edu/student-complaint-form

The University maintains a close relationship with Vidant Roanoke-Chowan Hospital which is located in nearby Ahoskie, NC, and emergency medical technicians are available at all hours. Students should contact a residence life staff member in their residence hall or call Public Safety at 252.398.1234 for emergency needs during the hours the Wellness Center is closed. The University believes students with serious illnesses or contagious diseases are best served at home or in the hospital. No hospital or quarantine facilities are available on campus.

Excuses for Class Absences
In keeping with the current Class Attendance Policy, the Wellness Center staff is not permitted to write excuses for missed classes. Students should send a photo copy of their written excuse to Chowan Registrar at Registrar@chowan.edu.

Health Facilities/Services - On campus
A Registered Nurse (RN) staffs the Wellness Center. The university also enjoys a relationship with Northampton Family Practice, which offers a full range of basic medical treatment. The tuition and fee charges covers the cost of seeing the nurse in the Center. The cost of receiving services at Northampton Family Practice is borne by the student or his/her personal health insurance.

Transportation
Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from medical facilities.

Health Forms
Each incoming student is required to forward a Chowan University Health Report to the Wellness Center, a part of which is a complete immunization record. The North Carolina Board of Immunization sets forth the immunizations requirements and audits the student health records on a regular basis; therefore, no exceptions to these requirements are allowed. Failure to submit any portion will result in students not being allowed to register for classes. Students will have thirty calendar days after the first day of classes in which to submit forms; failure to do so will result in suspension from classes until complete forms are submitted. No athlete may participate in intercollegiate sports or play in a game without a complete file submitted.

Health/Accident Insurance
Chowan University requires that each full-time student maintain a personal health policy. Students without a personal health care policy should contact an independent agent licensed to conduct insurance in the state of North Carolina. For your convenience, the University has negotiated with our carrier for a low cost accident and sickness policy. All students are enrolled in and billed for the accident and sickness policy unless they waive out of the coverage at www.chowan.edu/insurance, with proof of coverage. Once enrolled, the student is responsible for filing claims, and claim forms can be found at www.1stagency.com.

Pregnancy Policy
Chowan University does not discriminate against any student on the basis of pregnancy or related conditions. Absences due to medical conditions relating to pregnancy will be excused for as long as deemed medically necessary by a student’s doctor and students will be given the opportunity to make up missed work. Students needing assistance can seek accommodations from the Learning Center, Ella Benson at (252) 398-6304 or bensoe@chowan.edu or Title IX Coordinator, Brenda Tinkham at (252) 398-6437 or tinkhb@chowan.edu.

The Chowan University Response to Pregnancies:

1. Students with concerns about pregnancies may receive counseling from the school nurse or from a member of the Student Affairs Department. It is important to identify the pregnancy as early as possible in order to maximize the options available and to reduce the risks to the mother's health.
2. Chowan University does not condone the practice of abortion as a means of terminating unwanted pregnancies. However, information about abortions may be obtained from the school nurse.
3. At expense to the student, the university will assist the student in securing prenatal care through Social Services or private pay.
4. The pregnant student may continue attending classes and living in a residence hall as long as doing so does not disrupt the educational processes, create undue problems for others, or endanger the health/safety of the mother and baby as determined by the attending physician.
5. Chowan University does not provide housing for pregnant students during vacation periods.
6. Students cannot keep their children in residence halls.

A Condition of Continued Campus Residency during Pregnancy

› Not walking alone at night
› Keeping money and valuables out of sight
› Not keeping large sums of money, jewelry, or valuable items in your room

The student assumes the risk of all damage or loss to person and property that may result from participation in university related activities, or by use of or presence on University premises.

FIRE & STORM SAFETY

FIRE ALARM SYSTEMS

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to wantonly and willfully give or cause to be given, or to advise, counsel, or to aid and abet anyone in giving a false alarm of fire, or to break glass key protector, or to pull the slide arm, or lever of any systems, except in case of fire, or willfully misuse of damage a portable fire extinguisher, or in any ways to willfully interfere with, damage, deface, molest, or injure any part or portion of any fire alarm, fire detection, smoke detection or fire extinguishing system.

Civil Penalty: Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

University Penalty: preliminary suspension.

FIRE PREVENTION

What causes a Fire?
Lifestyles of university students are in some ways particularly susceptible to fire hazards. Overloading electrical circuits with cooking and other appliances, using improperly gauged extension cords and multiple plugs are common contributors. As with most residential fires, the leading cause is CIGARETTES. Smoking material often lights upholstery or bedding when the smoker falls asleep.

Before a Fire:
› Take fire drills seriously
› Know primary and secondary evacuation routes. Each building has at least two exit routes
› Know locations of fire alarm pull stations and fire extinguishers and how to activate them
› Have phone numbers for Fire Department (911) and Public Safety (252.398.1234) near your phone
› Count and remember the number of doors between your door and exits
› Be aware of fire hazards
› Be careful with cigarettes, electrical appliances, and combustibles

FIRE EVACUATION

On Hearing the Fire Alarm Sound:
› Prepare to exit building in an orderly manner
› Be familiar with safety precautions in exiting the building in case of fire. (Provided by residence hall staff.)
› DO NOT USE ELEVATORS
› Follow directions of the person in charge
› Be sure the fire department is called

In Case of Fire:
› Sound the fire alarm immediately to alert residents
› If possible, shut all doors and windows in immediate vicinity
› Use fire extinguisher on only the smallest, most containable fire
› Notify residence hall staff of location and type of fire
› Leave building by nearest exit and stay calm
› Crawl to prevent smoke and gas inhalation
› Take quilt or large towel to cover your face
› Take room key, but do not lock your room

After Exiting the Buildings:
› Stand clear of the building after evacuating
› Report to your RA to be accounted for › Follow directions of the staff members, Public Safety officers, Police, and Fire personnel

HURRICANE SAFETY

A hurricane is an intense area of low atmospheric pressure with counter-clockwise winds of at least 75 miles per hour. Always consider hurricane wind velocities of this magnitude a serious threat. Of all the natural disasters, a hurricane offers the greatest chance of advance preparations. The National Weather Service offers these suggestions:

Level 1: Hurricane Watch (Hurricane may threaten within 36 hours)
1. Check transistor radio and flashlight for fresh batteries.
2. Fill vehicle with gasoline and relocate to safe area away from trees, poles, etc.
3. Store at least a two-day supply of food and water in your room (food that requires no refrigeration or cooking.)

Level 2: Hurricane Warning (Hurricane expected to strike within 24 hours)
1. Recheck supplies
2. Stay indoors and out from under trees, power lines, etc.
3. Murfreesboro is located on a coastal evacuation route; therefore, stay off the streets
4. Stay out of long span buildings (Helms Center, Hawks Nest), elevators, etc.
5. Stay away from windows (the larger, the more dangerous)
6. Collect and store valuable and personal papers (money, jewelry, medicine, etc.)
7. Stay calm!

TORNADO SAFETY

A tornado is a very intense low-pressure area with counterclockwise winds sometimes exceeding 200 mph. Tornadoes generally move in a direction from the southwest to the northeast. A rapid reduction in atmospheric pressure causes structures to explode from the inside. Flying objects such as boards, limbs or other building materials cause most injuries. Adequate preparation for a tornado is the most difficult of all considerations; it offers the least amount of advance warning. The National Weather Service offers these suggestions:

Level 1: Tornado Watch (Conditions are right for tornado development.)
1. Stay calm. Continue normal activities, but be alert.
2. Monitor weather reports - take shelter.

Level 2: Tornado Warning (A tornado has actually been sighted).
1. Seek shelter - to lowest floor, preferably an interior hallway - stay away from windows.
2. Avoid long span buildings (Helms Center, Hawks Nest, etc.). If unavoidable, go to the rest rooms, closets, or hallways of these structures - sit with back to wall and hands folded over head and neck.
3. If caught outside:
   a. Move away at right angles from the storm’s path.
   b. Get out of vehicles.
   c. Lie flat in the lowest spot available (ditch, ravine, or other low spot).

Tornado Evacuation Areas
If a Tornado Warning has been issued on campus you should move immediately to the following areas:

› Academic Buildings - See notices in hallways
› Belk Hall - 1st floor north/south hallway, laundry room and restroom
› Dunn Hall - 1st floor hallways
› Helms Center - Training and locker rooms
› Jenkins Center - Restrooms and aerobics room
› Jenkins Hall - 1st floor hallway
› Library - Main floor away from windows and doors
› Mixon Hall - 1st floor hallway
› Parker Hall - Main floor in front of elevators, lobby away from windows
› Penny Hall - Examination room, Residence Life workroom
› Simons Hall - 1st floor hallway
› Thomas Cafeteria - Service Enterprise
› Whites Crossing - shower areas

Crisis Preparation Procedure
The possibility of an impending critical issue or the occurrence of such an event requires that the university notify the members of the university community in a timely yet orderly manner. The purpose of this document is to set forth a procedure by which the university can prepare for and/or respond to events such as natural disasters (serve weather, hurricane, tornado, flood), fires, floods, major utility failures, campus disturbances, violent crimes or the death of a member of the university community.

If reasonable cause exists to believe such an occurrence is eminent or has taken place Public Safety should be contacted immediately by calling 252-398-1234. This will initiate the university’s crisis management response system. The on-duty officer is to be appraised of the details of the occurrence and the caller should identify him/herself. The individual should contact 9-911 if the threat/occurrence deems such.

The on-duty Public Safety officer will initiate the university’s emergency notification procedure prior to physically responding to such a report. Members if the university community should not take it upon themselves to initiate campus-wide communication.

Members of the university community are to comply with directives of the Public Safety Staff or other Critical Issues Management personnel. In addition whenever possible, members of the university community are strongly encouraged to monitor their e-mail, telephones and the university’s web site for further information.
CAMPUS SAFETY & SECURITY

Chowan University is concerned about the safety and security of all members of the university community and is committed to providing a safe environment in which all members can achieve their goals. Chowan University is not immune from all crime, but due to our rural physical location within the town of Murfreesboro, and because of the attitude of community shared between the University and the town, we do not experience a significant amount of crime.

Chowan University has developed a series of safety and security policies that have been implemented to ensure that every possible precaution is being taken in protection of our University community. Although we have been very fortunate in not experiencing any major crimes on campus, it would not be accurate to state that we have no crime on campus. As the crime statistics in this report reveal, most of our crimes consist of petty larcenies where a student did not lock his or her residence hall room resulting in theft. The majority of crimes occurring on this campus could be prevented if the student population followed the security measures posted in each residence hall that reminds them to lock their doors whenever they leave the room.

In an effort to prevent such incidents, a full staff of residential living personnel is located in each residence hall to oversee the behavior of the residents and to inspect the condition of the fire safety equipment, exit lighting and to report any safety hazard. Residential living staff personnel also conduct mandatory floor meetings with the residents that cover crime prevention practices and define what type of behavior is expected. They also monitor access to the building through the enforcement of the visitation policy.

CAMPUS POLICE

The Campus Police Department is located at 401 Union St. The department provides law enforcement services to our university community. Chowan University has its own campus police department under the direction of the Chief of Campus Police. Our officers are trained and certified to enforce the laws of the State of North Carolina just as any other law enforcement officer in the state. The department works in conjunction with local municipal and county agencies to provide police protection 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, 365 days per year. The department’s primary goal is to provide a safe and secure environment of the University community to accomplish its mission.

Public safety is everyone's responsibility and must be viewed as a joint effort for our programs to be successful.

The Campus Police Department, along with the Department of Public Safety is responsible for enforcement, security and emergency response at Chowan University. It is also responsible for providing services tailored to meet the unique needs of the Chowan University community. These services include:

Remember....by always protecting your property, you can reduce the opportunity for a thief to commit a crime.

CRIME REPORTING
Numerous efforts are made to advise members of the campus community about crime and crime related problems. These efforts include:
Annual Security Report: A comprehensive annual report of crime related information is compiled, published and disseminated by October 1 of each year. This report is disseminated to all Faculty, Staff and Students.
Timely Warnings: If circumstances warrant, special printed Crime Alerts can be prepared and distributed throughout the campus via e-mail or special posted alerts.

CRIME STATISTICS
Crime statistics are required to be available to all students. These crime statistics can be found in MyCU, the Student Affairs section. The previous year’s crime statistics are made available October 1. If you do not have access to MyCU, you may contact Campus Police.

WEAPON POLICY
Chowan University prohibits the possession of any weapons on university property or at university related events. This includes any firearm, even with the possession of a valid concealed carry permit. This prohibition extends to weapons secured or unsecured in a vehicle while on university property. Examples of weapons include, but are not limited to: guns, rifles, pistols, bullets, explosives, BB guns, air soft guns, paint pellet guns, bow and arrow, sling shots, bowie knives, daggers, switch-blade knives, metallic knuckles, throwing stars, knives of more than six inches when opened and/or the use of any object used as a weapon or in a threatening manner.
Punishment: Punishable by expulsion and/or imprisonment.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION AND EVACUATION - CU HAWKALERT
Chowan University receives information from students, faculty, staff, as well as other University constituents and sources, both on and off campus (911, parents, Silent Witness, external Public Safety sources). If the University confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation, that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the University community, the University will send out appropriate notifications without delay. These notifications will take into account the safety of the community unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of the team, will compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the situation. If, issuing a notification potentially compromises efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency, the University may elect to delay issuing an emergency notification. As soon as the condition that may compromise efforts is no longer present, the team will issue an appropriate emergency notification to the campus community.
Members of the Student Affairs Response Team in collaboration with University administration is responsible for initiating CUHawkAlert. CUHawkAlert is the University campus wide emergency alert system that uses text messaging, email, social media, as well as a loud speaker system that brings attention of a campus wide emergency to the entire Chowan community. As further details are available, the University will release updates during a critical incident, as necessary.

Based on the characteristics of the situation, a determination will be made as to the breadth of the emergency communication. The entire campus community is notified when there is the potential that a large segment of the Chowan community is affected by a situation, or when a situation threatens the operation of the campus as a whole. Smaller segments of the Chowan community will be notified if the situation is more specific to that population. Due to the size of the Chowan University campus, most incidents will likely be communicated to the entire community.

Examples: Active Shooter unknown location – Entire community notified. Gas Leak in a specific residence hall – notification to residents of that residence hall Impending Tornado – Entire community notified.

TIMELY WARNINGS

Timely Warnings are issued when crimes or situations are considered a serious or continuing threat to the campus community. In addition to warning community members, these alerts can aid in crime prevention. The decision to issue a Timely Warning is made on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration the facts surrounding the Clery Act crime, including, but not limited to, such factors as: the nature of the crime, the serious or continuing threat to the campus community, and the possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts. Timely warnings are sent out by Public Safety to the campus community. Timely warning communications may be sent out via email, text message, website and/or social media. Those responsible for sending out the information will likely be comprised of individuals or a group of individuals from the Student Affairs Response Team and/or members of University administration. The Student Affairs Response team is comprised of; Chief of Campus Police, Assistant Chief of Campus Police, Vice President for Student Affairs, Associate Vice President for Students Affairs, Assistant Dean of Student for Residence Life and Associate Dean of Students.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

A missing student is defined as any currently registered student of Chowan University who has not been seen by friends, family members or associates for a reasonable length of time or a maximum of 24 hours, and whose whereabouts have been questioned. Missing students concerns should be brought to the attention of a member of the Student Affairs Staff or Campus Police immediately (see list below). All reports submitted will be investigated by Chowan University Campus Police. The Director of Public Safety will initiate an investigation when they are notified that a student is missing, with no reasonable explanation for his/her absence. In the event campus police are unavailable, missing student reports will be transferred to Murfreesboro Police Department.

In the event a missing student resides on campus, the Associate Vice President of Student Affairs will notify the parents/family members regarding the situation. In the event the student does not reside in a University residence hall, the appropriate municipal local police authorities will be notified by campus police and an investigation will be initiated. Students determined missing will have their “missing person contact” contacted, emergency contacts contacted, and any student under the age of 18 will have their custodial parent or guardian contacted. Chowan Campus Police will also contact Murfreesboro Police within 24 hours of determining a student is missing.

The university encourages all students to provide a missing person contact. You may complete a “Missing Person Contact” form in Residence Life located in Penny Hall. This “missing person contact” information is confidential and will only be accessible to authorized campus officials, and that it may not be disclosed, expect to law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing person investigation. This “missing person contact” will be kept separate from emergency contact information and will not be provided even if requester has FERPA consent.

Student that are under the age 18 years of age and are not emancipated will provide notification to custodial parents or guardians within 24 hours of the determination the student is missing. This is in addition to the “missing person contact” designated by the missing student.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE PREVENTION PROGRAM

This program is pending final approval from the Department of Education.

In compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, Chowan University has implemented the following policies to prevent the illicit use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol by students and employees.

The Mission of the University states that, “Chowan University, grounded in its Christian faith, transforms the lives of students of promise.” Drug and alcohol use and abuse can interfere with a student’s ability to pursue an education that transforms his/her life and therefore drug and alcohol abuse is inconsistent with the University’s Mission. Alcohol and drug abuse affects the health, safety and well-being of all students and employees. Thus, it is in this context that the University views the presence of illicit drugs as conflicting with this mission and therefore strives to maintain a drug and alcohol-free campus environment.

The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of any controlled substance or illicit drug is prohibited on campus, including all University premises where the activities of the institution are conducted, while on University business or as part of any of the institution’s programs or activities. In addition, the University also prohibits the possession, use or distribution of alcohol on campus, while on University business or as part of any of the institution’s programs or activities.

Storing any unauthorized controlled substances, drug paraphernalia or alcohol in a locker, desk, University owned vehicle or other places on Chowan owned or occupied premises is prohibited. It is the responsibility of students and employees to know and comply with this policy. To facilitate this, the campus alcohol and drug policy is clearly laid out and distributed to all students and employees as follows:

» The University's drug and alcohol policy is available in the Student Handbook and the Employee Handbook, as well as posted on the Human Resources section of the MyCu intranet platform, which are made available to every student and employee. Information on Chowan’s drug and alcohol policies are distributed to all new and current students and employees through various University departments. At orientation sessions for new students and new employees, information about the University’s drug and alcohol policies are provided and discussed.

» Each year, copies of this policy are sent to all students and employees via email. Those who violate this drug and alcohol use policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Employees and students who violate this policy may be referred for criminal prosecution. The use of controlled substances/illicit drugs or narcotics and the service of or selling of alcohol to those less than 21 years of age is against the law. Many states will not grant driver’s license privileges to graduates convicted of a federal offense.

» This policy is subject to the jurisdiction of the University Senior Staff. The University conducts a biennial review of this policy to determine the effectiveness of this policy and to ensure that disciplinary sanctions for violating this policy are enforced consistently for all University students and employees.

The Student Body
The Department of Student Affairs shall be responsible for the administration of this policy as it pertains to the students of the University. Their role and specific responsibilities include:

» Education directed toward preventing the use of illicit drugs and alcohol consumption by providing programs, which view illicit drugs and alcohol consumption from various perspectives.
  a. Students and parents shall be informed of;
     i. the educational programs available;
     ii. the counseling and rehabilitation opportunities; AND
  b. The entire University community shall be made aware of the institution’s stance and concerns for the recognition and understanding of and adherence to this policy. Specific published information and floor meetings with students during the first week of the semester shall be used to emphasize the importance of this matter.

» Counseling for preventing the use of drugs and/or illegal substances including alcohol consumption/possession shall be provided and, where deemed appropriate and/or necessary, individuals may be directed to off-campus consultative professional services. The success of the counseling program depends on classmates, friends or family members to identify and refer individuals to the Student Affairs staff.

Obviously, the earlier the referral the better and thus it is the responsibility of the community to refer individuals before their being reported and charged with a violation of the policy. Students referred for counseling or who seek counseling will be evaluated by one or more members of the Student Affairs staff. Individuals whom evidence drug and/or alcohol related problems may be directed to seek other on-campus counseling provided by the Student Affairs department or an off-campus counseling service. Those who refuse to seek such assistance will be denied continued enrollment. University judicial action does not preclude the possibility of criminal charges being brought against a student if he/she is found in violation of any federal, state, or local regulations. It is not considered “double jeopardy” for both the civil authorities and the University to proceed to prosecute a single offense of federal, state, and/or local statutes and a violation of University policy.
Chowan University Community
Chowan University prohibits the use of any illicit drugs and consumption of alcoholic beverages by any University employee where the consumption adversely affects job performance. Employees which demonstrate evidence of impairment to perform their assigned duties and/or endangers the physical well-being of other persons will be directed to their immediate supervisor(s) and/or the Office of Human Resources for evaluation assistance. Employees are never permitted to take illicit drugs and/or consume alcoholic beverages of any kind at any University owned or operated location at any time. The only potential exception to this policy statement is where the employee is under a licensed medical providers care and the medication has been prescribed to the employee and documentation exists stating that the medication will not adversely affect the employee’s ability to perform their duties and does not project a safety risk for fellow employees.

The consumption of alcoholic beverages or possession of open containers of alcoholic beverages in public places including hallways, lounges, buildings, outdoor spaces or anywhere on the grounds is prohibited. The University also prohibits driving in the local community while under the influence of alcohol, illicit drugs or controlled substances in concert with the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Additionally, a student whose behavior off campus negatively impacts the University and/or student body may be held accountable through normal disciplinary proceedings. Students who reside off campus and host parties or similar functions will be held responsible for the actions of those attending such activities, in the event the behavior of those in attendance negatively impacts the University. In such an incident, the student(s) will be required to appear before an administrative officer to offer an explanation as to why he/she is not a threat or has not negatively impacted the University. Amphetamines/Other stimulants
Amphetamines (speed, uppers), methamphetamines and other stimulants can cause increased heart and respiratory rate, elevated blood pressure, dilated pupils and decreased appetite. In addition, users may experience sweating, headache, bad breath, blurred vision, dizziness, sleeplessness, and anxiety. Extremely high doses can cause a rapid or irregular heartbeat, tremors, loss of coordination, and even physical collapse. An amphetamine injection causes a sudden increase in blood pressure that can result in stroke, very high fever or heart failure.

In addition to the physical effects listed above, stimulant users report feeling restless, anxious and moody. People who use large amounts of amphetamines over a long period of time can develop an amphetamine psychosis that includes hallucinations, delusions and paranoia.

Barbiturates/Other depressants
Barbiturates (downers), methaqualone (quaaludes), tranquilizers (valium and rohypnol) and other Depressants have many of the same effects as alcohol. Small or prescribed doses can produce calmness and relaxed muscles, but larger doses can cause slurred speech, staggering and altered perception. Very large doses can cause respiratory depression, coma and death. The combination of depressants and alcohol can multiply the effects of the drugs, thereby multiplying the risks. Use can also cause liver damage, convulsions, and coma.

Cannabis / Marijuana
The physical effects of marijuana include a substantial increase in heart rate, bloodshot eyes, a dry mouth and throat, and increased appetite. It may impair short-term memory and comprehension, alter sense of time and reduce ability to perform tasks requiring concentration and coordination, such as driving a car. Research also shows that motivation and cognition may be altered, making the acquisition of new information difficult. When marijuana contains 2 percent THC, it can cause severe psychological damage, including paranoia and psychosis. Since the early 1980’s, most marijuana has contained from 4 to 6 percent THC - two or three times the amount capable of causing serious damage.

Because users often inhale the unfiltered smoke deeply and then hold it in their lungs as long as possible, marijuana is damaging to the lungs and pulmonary system. Marijuana smoke contains more cancer causing agents than tobacco smoke. Long-term users of marijuana may develop psychological dependence and require more of the drug to get the same effect.
Cocaine / Crack
Cocaine stimulates the central nervous system. Its immediate effects include dilated pupils and elevated blood pressure, increased heart and respiratory rate, and elevated body temperature. Injecting cocaine with contaminated equipment can cause AIDS, hepatitis and other diseases. Crack, or freebase rock, is a purified form of cocaine that is smoked. Smoking crack provides intensified cocaine effects because higher doses of the drug reach the brain very quickly. Crack is far more addictive than heroin or barbiturates. Continued use can produce violent behavior and psychotic states similar to schizophrenia.

Health risks include malnutrition, respiratory problems, addiction, stroke, liver problems, seizures, heart and respiratory failure, psychosis, coma, convulsions, and sexual dysfunction. Cocaine in any form, but particularly in the purified form known as crack, can cause sudden death from cardiac arrest or respiratory failure.

Hallucinogens
Hallucinogens phencyclidine (PCP, angel dust), mescaline, peyote, LSD, and mushrooms interfere with the part of the brain that controls the intellect and keeps instincts in check. Hallucinogens are psychedelic, mind-altering drugs that affect a person’s perceptions, feelings, thinking, and self-awareness. Use causes increased body temperature, heart rate and blood pressure, sweating, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, tremors, confusion, paranoia, and sometimes violence.

Because PCP blocks pain receptors, violent PCP episodes may result in self-inflicted injuries. Large doses may produce convulsions and coma, as well as heart and lung failure. Psychological reactions may include panic, confusion, suspicion, anxiety and loss of control. Delayed effects or flashbacks can occur even after use has ceased.

Inhalants
The immediate negative effects of inhalants (laughing gas, whippets) include nausea, sneezing, coughing, nosebleeds, fatigue, and lack of coordination and loss of appetite. Solvents and aerosol sprays also decrease heart and respiratory rates and impair judgment. Amyl and butyl nitrite cause rapid pulse, headaches and involuntary passing of urine and feces. Long-term use may result in hepatitis or brain damage. Deeply inhaling the vapors or using large amounts over a short period of time may result in disorientation, violent behavior, unconsciousness, or death. High concentrations of inhalants can cause suffocation by displacing the oxygen in the lungs or by depressing the central nervous system to the point that breathing stops.

MDMA / Ecstasy
MDMA is a stimulant with psychedelic properties. Short-term effects include feelings of mental stimulation, emotional warmth, enhanced sensory perception, and increased physical energy. Adverse health effects can include nausea, chills, sweating, teeth clenching, muscle cramping, and blurred vision. Chronic use of MDMA may lead to changes in brain function.

Narcotics
Narcotics such as opium, Demerol, heroin, codeine and morphine initially produce a feeling of euphoria that often is followed by drowsiness, nausea and vomiting. Users also may experience constricted pupils, watery eyes and itching. An overdose may produce slow and shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsions, coma and possible death. Narcotics are extremely addictive.

Steroids
Steroids are synthetic drugs that resemble natural hormones made in the body. The type of steroids that are misused are anabolic androgenic steroids (AAS), which copy the effects of the male hormone, testosterone. People use AAS to build muscle or increase strength. These types of steroids can be swallowed or injected into the muscles. AAS is different to corticosteroids, which are medically prescribed to treat conditions such as asthma. Corticosteroids copy the effects of the cortisol hormone and have no muscle-building or performance-enhancing effects.

AAS drugs affect people in different ways with varied intensity. However, adverse effect will increase the longer the drug is used when people take several AAS drugs simultaneously (known as stacking) the risk and harms associated with use are increased. Some harmful effects of this type of use are as follows:

- Water retention
- Acne
- Reduced sex drive
- High blood pressure and cholesterol
- Heart disease, stroke and abnormal liver function
- Diabetes

Additional information about the health risks of drug use and abuse can be accessed through the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

Policy Distribution Requirements

Initial Distribution Requirements:

Chowan University will utilize distribution methodologies to ensure all students and employees have multiple opportunities to have access to and become familiar with the University’s DAAPP. At its inception (September 2018 and once approved by DoE), the DAAPP will be emailed to all currently enrolled students and current employees. The DAAPP will be distributed in printed version to current employees along with their payroll checks/statements and to residential students will via their on-campus mailboxes. All other students will have a printed copy of the DAAPP mailed to their home address.

The DAAPP will also be included in its entirety in a revised (2019-20) Student Handbook, the Employee Handbook, placed on the University Website under both the Student Affairs and Human Resources locations, and posted on the Human Resources section of the MyCU intranet platform, which is available to every student and employee. Additionally, information on Chowan’s drug and alcohol policies will be distributed to all new and current students and employees through various University departments. One example is distribution through new student and new employee orientation sessions where information about the University’s drug and alcohol policies are provided and discussed. Lastly, copies of this policy will be sent to all current students and employees via email. All initial distribution of the DAAPP are to be completed with 30 days of receipt of program approval from the DoE.

Prior to the development of the DAAPP, policies were in place and enforced. Those policies on illicit drug and alcohol abuse in regards to students were contained in the Student Handbook, which was published annually and distributed to new students. Returning students had the option of picking up a new printed version of the handbook or they could access it on the University website. Policies regarding employees were published in the Employee Handbook, which is given to all new employees and is made available to continuing employees upon request from the Human Resources Office.

On-Going Distribution Requirements:

Annual distribution of the most current DAAPP is to be conducted on a perpetual cycle to ensure that all current and new students/employees have access to the program policy and an understanding of their rights and obligations to ensure an educational, social, and work environment free of drugs and alcohols as influenced by University policy and legal requirements. The University takes its obligations seriously and therefore requires the following distribution actions annually:

» DAAPP Distribution to students:
  › incorporated in the annual student handbook;
  › made available on the Student Affairs section of the University website;
  › made available on the Student Affairs section of the University intranet (MyCU);
  › included in new student orientation programs to include dialog of awareness and comprehension;
  › included in start of term residential hall orientation/
semester meetings to solicit understanding and feedback;
› formatted into an annual student-centric brochure distributed to residential students via their University assigned mailbox and sent to student home addresses of non-residential students; AND › e-mailed to all currently enrolled students per fall and spring academic semester.

DAAP Distribution to employees:
› incorporated in the annual faculty/staff (employee)
handbook;
› made available on the Human Resources section of the University website;
› made available on the Human Resources section of the University intranet (MyCU); › included in new employee orientation programs to include dialog of awareness and comprehension;
› formatted into an annual employee-centric brochure
distributed to current employees via University mail system; AND
› e-mailed to all current employees at the beginning of each fall/spring academic semester.

Required DAAPP Review:
The University DAAPP, once approved by the Department of Education, is expected to be reviewed biennially through a program/policy review team as directed by the Biennial Review policy. The review expectations will include, but not be limited to:

› review of then current Department of Education regulations to ensure the DAAPP remains compliant with DoE and Federal expectations and make necessary adjustment
recommendations for University adoption;
› review of all sources (federal, state, and local) law/regulations which impacts directly or indirectly the University DAAPP to ensure continued compliance and to make necessary adjustment recommendations for University adoption; › review the most current two academic years of drug and/or alcohol related University issues › to determine whether the cases were adjudicated consistently and fairly under the framework of the then current DAAPP;
› to investigate and report the effectiveness of the current DAAPP and recommend improvements to the University
for adoption;
› to determine whether new opportunities have arisen to offer students/employees with resources to strengthen the University DAAPP; AND › determine the effectiveness of the distribution requirements above to verify/ensure adequate program distribution to all aspects of the University community.
CHOWAN UNIVERSITY TITLE IX AND GENDER EQUALITY

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

- Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 to the 1964 Civil Rights Act

Consistent with federal law and its own Christian mission, Chowan University does not discriminate, nor tolerate discrimination, on the basis of race, color, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, national or ethnic origin, marital status, veteran status, or disability.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

Introduction
Chowan University strives to provide an environment that is fully conducive to learning and intellectual pursuit within a Christian context. The University therefore condemns all forms of sexual discrimination as being inconsistent with its mission. Chowan University, as a Christian institution of higher education affirms its moral commitment to the dignity and worth of all individuals.

Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972 states that "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." Sexual violence and harassment are forms of discrimination prohibited by Title IX.

Chowan's policies prohibiting sexual violence and sexual harassment ("sexual misconduct") are not only legal responsibilities with practical applicability, they stem from the University's historical and continuing commitment to Christian and moral values. Chowan University takes seriously every allegation or report of sexual misconduct it receives. The University's response is intended to assure that all parties involved are treated fairly, that victims receive appropriate support, and that allegations of sexual misconduct are handled in a prompt, thorough and equitable manner.

Scope
All members of the Chowan University community (students, faculty, and staff) are protected by and are responsible to adhere to the Sexual Misconduct Policy. This policy applies to any instance in which a member of the Chowan University community becomes a victim of or is alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct. The Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all conduct that impacts the educational environment, regardless of whether it takes place on or off campus and regardless of the gender or sexual orientation of the individuals involved. Sexual misconduct committed electronically or via social media is included in this policy and is strictly prohibited by Chowan University.

Chowan University defines sexual misconduct to include:

» Sexual harassment – unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including but not limited to unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or other verbal or nonverbal conduct of a sexual nature.
» Gender-based harassment – unwelcome conduct of a nonsexual nature based on a student's actual or perceived sex, including conduct based on gender identity, gender expression, and nonconformity with gender stereotypes.
» Sexual violence (assault) – actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person's consent. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:
  › Intentional touching of another person's intimate parts without that person's consent;
  › Other intentional sexual contact with another person without that person's consent;
  › Coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force a person to touch another person's intimate parts without that person's consent;
  › Rape, which is penetration, no matter how slight, of (1) the vagina or anus of a person by any body part of another person or by an object, or (2) the mouth of a person by a sex organ of another person, without that person's consent.
» Sexual exploitation – a person takes sexual advantage of another person (victim) for the benefit of anyone other than the victim without the victim's consent. Examples of behavior that could rise to the level of sexual exploitation include:
  › Prostituting another person;
  › Recording images (e.g., video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness without that person's consent;
  › Distributing images (e.g., video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, if the individual distributing the images or audio knows or should have known that the person depicted in the images or audio did not consent to such disclosure and objects to such disclosure; and,
  › Viewing another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person's consent, and for the purpose of arousing or gratifying sexual desire.
» Relationship violence – committing an act of violence (including but not limited to, pushing, hitting, striking, using a weapon) against another person in the context of a dating, cohabitation or marriage relationship.

» Sex/gender-based stalking – engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his/her safety or the safety of others; or suffer substantial emotional distress.

Definition of Affirmative Consent
For purposes of applicability to Title IX only, affirmative consent between individuals engaging in sexual activity is defined as “informed, freely and affirmatively communicated willingness to participate in sexual activity that is expressed by clear and unambiguous words or actions.” Clear and unambiguous words or actions are those that are freely and actively given by informed individuals that a reasonable person in the circumstances would believe communicate a willingness to participate in a mutually agreed upon sexual activity.

The following factors will be considered when determining consent:

» It is the responsibility of each person who wishes to engage in the sexual activity to obtain consent.

» A lack of protest, the absence of resistance and silence do not indicate consent.

» The existence of a present or past dating or romantic relationship does not imply consent to future sexual activity.

» Consent must be present throughout the sexual activity and may be initially given, but withdrawn at any time.

» When consent is withdrawn, all sexual activity must stop. Likewise, where there is confusion about the state of consent, sexual activity must stop until both parties consent again.

» Consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity.

» Consent is not obtained where:
  › There is physical force, threats, intimidation or coercion.
  › There is incapacitation due to the influence of drugs or alcohol.
  › There is the inability to communicate because of a physical or mental condition.
  › An individual is asleep, unconscious or involuntarily physically restrained.

An individual is unable to understand the nature or extent of the sexual situation because of mental or physical incapacitation or impairment.

One party is not of legal age to give consent.

Report for Support
Chowan University strongly encourages any victim of sexual misconduct to report such misconduct to the University. Whether or not the victim intends to pursue disciplinary action against the accused, Chowan University places the highest importance on providing victims with support in responding to the incident. The University strives to end all forms of discrimination, prevent their reoccurrence, and remedy their effects both on individual victims and the larger University community. Retaliation and intimidation, whether by the accused or third parties, are prohibited and are considered violations of this policy.

Title IX Coordinator
Chowan University has designated a Title IX Coordinator to oversee the University’s compliance with and response to instances of sexual misconduct. The Title IX Coordinator is:

Alan Scott
Marks 212
scotta1@chowan.edu
252-398-6437

The Office of the Title IX Coordinator investigates incidents, coordinates support for victims, and may make initial disciplinary determinations when formal disciplinary proceedings are instituted in response to an allegation of sexual misconduct.

In addition to contacting the Title IX Coordinator, victims of sexual assault and of dating or domestic violence should immediately call Chowan University Public Safety at 252-398-1234 (if the assault took place on campus) or local law enforcement at 911. Victims are strongly encouraged to seek immediate medical attention as well. Please seek medical attention prior to bathing or changing clothes to avoid destruction of evidence.

Reporting
There are many ways to report an alleged incident(s) of sexual misconduct. You may submit the Title IX Discrimination Complaint Form [GMG1] by email to TitleIX@chowan.edu, by campus or US mail, or bring it to the office of the Title IX Coordinator. If you are unable for any reason to complete this form and would like to make a verbal complaint, please call the Title IX Coordinator at 252-398-6437. Upon receiving a call, the Title IX Coordinator will be in touch. Please use the reporting method with which you are most comfortable.

Terminology
This policy refers to the individual who is the alleged victim of the behavior(s) in question as the “complainant” and the student alleged to have committed the violation of the policy as the “respondent”. Both the complainant and the respondent will be treated fairly and with respect throughout the process.

Time Frames
The university’s overall goal is to resolve complaints under this policy within 60 calendar days from receipt of a report. An investigation typically takes 10 to 30 days to complete. Generally, within 14 days after completion of an investigation (during which time the Title IX Coordinator may be seeking clarifying information and/or meeting with a complainant, respondent, or others), a hearing, if applicable, is scheduled.

Circumstances may require extensions of this overall 60-day time frame or any individual time frame discussed in this policy. The University reserves the right to extend these time frames in its sole discretion. Examples of reasons why time frames may need to be extended include the complexity of the case, delays due to fall/spring/summer/holiday breaks, inclement weather, and other extenuating circumstances. Exceptions to these time frames will be communicated to the complainant and respondent.
Investigation and Initial Action

Upon receipt of a report, the Title IX Coordinator will confer with the Vice-President of Student Affairs to determine whether the report falls within the scope of Title IX. If the report is considered a Title IX incident, the Title IX coordinator will (1) coordinate interim action to support the alleged victim, (2) determine appropriate investigatory measures, and (3) take other short-term actions as necessary. See the Student Conduct Process for Sexual Misconduct Allegations chart.

Administrative Resolution

In some cases, the Title IX Coordinator will propose an administrative resolution to resolve the matter. If both Complainant and Respondent accept the proposed resolution, the matter is closed. In the event that either party rejects the administrative resolution or the Title IX Coordinator decides the case is not appropriate for administrative resolution, the Title IX Coordinator will refer the matter to a hearing board to determine whether Respondent is in violation of Chowan University policy.

Hearing Procedures

Through the process of a hearing, a panel of faculty and staff determines – by a preponderance of the evidence – whether it is more likely than not that Respondent violated University policy. The following procedures apply to a complaint that proceeds to a hearing panel. Hearing panels typically consist of three to five members, one of whom is designated to serve as chairperson. The hearing chair has general authority over the conduct of the hearing.

- Notice: Both Complainant and Respondent will be notified at least 72 hours in advance of the date and time of the hearing and the name(s) of the hearing panelists.
- Recusal: A complainant or respondent may challenge the participation of a hearing panelist who he/she perceives to have a conflict of interest. Such challenges, including their rationale, must be made to the hearing panel chairperson at least 48 hours prior to the commencement of the hearing. In his/her discretion, the hearing panel chairperson will determine whether the challenged panelist should be replaced.
- Hearing Packet: In advance of the hearing, the Title IX Coordinator will prepare a hearing packet with information relevant to the case for the hearing panelists. The hearing packet will typically include the investigator’s report. The Title IX Coordinator will make the hearing packet available to both Complainant and Respondent at least 72 hours in advance of the hearing. If the hearing packet contains particularly sensitive information, Complainant and Respondent may be asked to review the information at the Title IX office rather than receiving a copy.
- Additional Information. If Complainant or Respondent wishes to share additional relevant written information with the hearing panel, it must be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator at least 36 hours in advance of the hearing. The Title IX Coordinator will share the additional material with the other party at least 8 hours before the hearing.
- Witnesses: Complainants and Respondents may offer relevant material witnesses to provide testimony. Complainants/Respondents must provide (in writing) the names of any witnesses they wish to testify and a description of each witness’s relevant information to the Chair of the Hearing Panel [SLF2] at least 48 hours in advance of the hearing. Names of witnesses submitted to the Title IX Coordinator by the Complainant or Respondent will be shared with the other party in advance of the hearing. Note that the Chair of the Hearing Panel [SLF3] may exclude witnesses or witness testimony deemed irrelevant or duplicative. Participants are reminded that any information shared during a hearing is confidential.

- Hearing Format: The general format of a hearing is as follows: introductions; Respondent’s statement regarding whether he/she accepts or denies responsibility; statement of Complainant; questions; statement of Respondent; questions; witnesses; closing comments from the Complainant; and closing comments from the Respondent. A complainant or respondent may not question one another or other witnesses directly, but may submit questions to the hearing panel, which will determine whether to ask them.
- Notice of Findings: Written notification of the hearing panel’s decision will be provided to Respondent and Complainant at approximately the same time no later than five business days after the hearing.

Sanctions

If Respondent is found responsible for violating University policy, the hearing panel will recommend a sanction to the Vice President of Student Affairs and the Title IX Coordinator. Sanctions for a finding of responsibility include, but are not limited to, expulsion, suspension, disciplinary probation, mandatory counseling, and/or other educational sanctions. Factors pertinent to the determination of what sanction(s) applies to the finding include, but are not limited to, the nature of the conduct at issue, prior disciplinary history of Respondent, and Respondent’s willingness to accept responsibility for his/her actions. The Vice President of Student Affairs in consultation with the Title IX Coordinator has[SLF4] discretion to adopt or modify the panel’s recommended sanction.

Appeals

Either Respondent or Complainant may appeal the hearing panel’s decision on two limited grounds. The two grounds of appeal are:

1. New information not reasonably available at the time of the hearing that is material to the hearing panel's decision has become available.
2. Procedural error(s) that materially impacted the hearing panel's decision were committed.
3. Note that an appeal is not a re-hearing of the case.

Procedures

The party who files the appeal is the “Appellant.” The other party is the “Appellee.” The following procedures guide the Appellate Board process:

- Appeal Statement. The appeal statement of the Appellant is due five business days from the date of the hearing panel’s decision. Appeals must be submitted in writing and are limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins).
- Grounds of Appeal. Appeal statements must identify the grounds of appeal. The Appellate Board Chair may summarily deny an appeal if it is not based on one or both grounds of appeal.
Chowan University
Conduct Process for Sexual Misconduct Allegations

Complainant or third party reports incident of Sexual Misconduct to (a) Title IX Coordinator or (b) to a university employee, who informs the Title IX Coordinator and provides names of the parties involved, if known. Note: University Counselor and Associate Minister are exempt from reporting to Title IX Coordinator.

Title IX Coordinator reaches out to the complainant by sending the complainant an email requesting to meet.

The Title IX Coordinator maintains a copy of the report. The Title IX Coordinator reaches out to the complainant to provide confidential support and counseling. A complainant who declines to meet with the Title IX Coordinator may still meet with the Counselor.

Complainant accepts or declines request to meet with the Title IX Coordinator. If complainant meets with Title IX Coordinator, complainant is informed of disciplinary option through the university. Complainant may participate in the disciplinary process or decline to do so. If the complainant declines to participate but sufficient information is available to investigate or initiate some intervention with an accused complainant that will occur, keeping the complainant’s request for confidentiality to extent possible.

An independent investigation may be conducted and a report of findings submitted.

A ‘no contact’ directive may be put into place between the complainant and the respondent. Additional interim measures may be considered.

Complainant asks the Title IX Coordinator to proceed with investigation.

A determination will be made by the Title IX Coordinator whether sufficient information exists to move forward with a hearing.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator in collaboration with the VP for Student Affairs and/or Human Resources, a three-person specially trained panel will consider the case. Respondent and complainant (if complainant chooses to participate) participate in hearing.

Within 2-5 business days after panel hearing, outcome will be conveyed individually to respondent and complainant at approximately the same time.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator in collaboration with the VP for Student Affairs and/or Director of Human Resources, an administrative hearing may be conducted to resolve the matter. If both complainant and respondent accept resolution, the matter is resolved. If one or both do not, a hearing panel is convened.

Both parties have right of appeal within grounds of appeal to Appellate Board.
Response to Appeal. The Chair will provide written notice to the Appellee that an appeal has been submitted and will give the Appellee an opportunity to review the appeal statement. The Appellee may submit a written response to the appeal statement (“response”). The response is due five business days from the date the chair provides written notice of the appeal to the Appellee and is limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins). The Chair will provide the Appellant an opportunity to review the response, but no additional opportunity to respond in writing will be provided to the Appellant.

Composition of Appellate Board. The Chair will convene an Appellate Board and notify the Appellant and Appellee of the names of the Board members. Individuals who served as hearing panelists may not serve as Appellate Board members in the same case.

Recusal. The Appellant or Appellee may challenge the participation of an Appellate Board member who he/she perceives to have a conflict of interest. Such challenges, including their rationale, must be made to the Appellate Board chairperson at least 48 hours prior to the commencement of the hearing. In his/her discretion, the Appellate Board chairperson will determine whether the challenged Board member should be replaced.

Role of the Appellate Board. The Appellate Board’s role is limited to reviewing the hearing panel record, the Appellant’s written appeal statement and any response to that statement by the Appellee. The Appellate Board will generally provide written notice of its decision within 20 business days from receipt of the appeal statement. If the decision will take longer, the Chair will inform the parties. Both the Appellant and the Appellee will be notified at approximately the same time.

If the Appellate Board determines that a ground of appeal is substantiated, the panel has the authority to resolve the case or to remand the case to the original hearing panel with instructions for further proceedings. If the case is reconsidered by the original hearing panel, the Complainant and/or Respondent may appeal the subsequent decision of that hearing panel, but the appeal is limited to those issues(s) considered in response to the original appeal.

Information for Complainants
Complainants will be treated with respect before, during, and after the Title IX process. Complainants will be informed of the University’s disciplinary process and possible outcomes. The University will provide updates as to the status of the investigation as appropriate.

Note that alleged behavior may also be criminal in nature, and a respondent may be subject to a criminal investigation by the appropriate law enforcement agency at the same time as an investigation by the University under this policy.

Remedies available to a complainant may include, but are not limited to: reasonable academic accommodations, on-campus housing reassignment, a “no contact” order between the accused and the Complainant, and disciplinary action against the accused as determined through the disciplinary process outlined in this policy.

An advisor of the Complainant’s choice may accompany the Complainant to any meeting with Title IX Coordinator, the case officer, or to a hearing. The advisor’s role in any meeting or hearing is limited to quietly conferring with the Complainant through written correspondence or whisper, and the advisor may not address any other participant or the hearing panel.

Information for Respondents
Respondents will be treated with respect before, during, and after the Title IX process. Respondents will be informed of the University’s disciplinary process and possible outcomes. The University will provide updates as to the status of the investigation as appropriate.

Note that alleged behavior may also be criminal in nature, and a respondent may be subject to a criminal investigation by the appropriate law enforcement agency at the same time as an investigation by the University under this policy.

An advisor of the Respondent’s choice may accompany the Respondent to any meeting with the Title IX Coordinator, the case officer, or to a hearing. The advisor’s role in any meeting or hearing is limited to quietly conferring with the Respondent through written correspondence or whisper, and the advisor may not address any other participant or the hearing panel.

Retaliation
Chowan University strictly prohibits retaliation against any individual for reporting, providing information, exercising one’s rights or responsibilities, or otherwise being involved in the process of responding to, investigating, or addressing allegations of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, or sexual violence. Therefore, any retaliation, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination against any such individual, undertaken or attempted either directly or by third parties, will be addressed in the most serious way by Chowan University. Individuals who engage in such actions are subject to discipline up to and including suspension, expulsion, or dismissal from the University, consistent with University procedure. Anyone who is aware of possible retaliation or has other concerns regarding the response to a complaint of sexual misconduct should report such concerns to the Title IX Coordinator, who will take appropriate action(s) to address such conduct in a prompt and equitable manner.

BEGIN THE HEALING: RESOURCES FOR THE VICTIMS, BYSTANDERS AND SUPPORTERS

INTRODUCTION

Chowan University is committed to providing support and services to you, as a reporting party (someone who has experienced or reported an incident of sexual misconduct which includes; sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking). Chowan University’s sexual misconduct policy is a unified policy that applies equally to students, faculty and staff and stipulates Chowan does not condone sexual violence and/or harassment in any form.

We understand that you may be unsure about what you want to do right now. You may not want to do anything. You may just want to talk to someone. You may just want some support, or need accommodations. You may want to pursue an investigation. You have options. We are here to help you with those options. This document informs you of your options, steps Chowan University can take to support you, services available to you, and your rights during an investigation, should you decide you want to pursue one.

Although this document is about the university’s internal administrative process, if you want to pursue criminal charges, we can help. You have the right to pursue both criminal and administrative charges; you do not need to choose one or the other. You can find more information about reporting options at: https://chowan.edu/titleix

PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

If you have experienced sexual assault, there are specific procedures you can follow to preserve evidence including completing a Rape Kit at Vidant Roanoke-Chowan Hospital in Ahoskie.

Preserving Evidence for Sexual Assaults - Physical evidence is crucial in helping to prosecute assailants in cases of rape or sexual assault. Physical evidence must be collected in a timely manner by a certified medical facility. Prior to a medical/legal exam, victims of rape or assault should not bathe, change clothes, douche, use the toilet (if possible), smoke or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 96 hours so that the evidence may be preserved. If victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted diseases.

Preserving Evidence for Victims of Violence - Victims of violence should not bathe or change clothes prior to documentation of physical evidence. Preserving evidence may be necessary to prove criminal domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or in obtaining a protection order. If victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries.

Preserving Evidence for Victims of Stalking - Victims of stalking should save evidence such as any letters, notes, emails, phone calls, videos, photos, texts, social media postings (Facebook, Twitter, etc.), computer screenshots, voicemails, or any other form of evidence that would be helpful.

If you would like to have a Rape Kit completed, Chowan University Public Safety can accompany you; however, you may go to a local hospital on your own and receive the same services. You do not need to file charges against someone in order to complete a rape kit. You can remain anonymous. If you are concerned about paying for the exam or your parents receiving an insurance bill, don’t worry. There is no cost associated with obtaining a rape kit, and you do not need to provide any insurance information. Regardless of the type of misconduct you have experienced, please retain any electronic records, including texts, emails, photos, and social media postings in case you decide that you want to pursue an administrative and/or criminal investigation. Electronic records can also be helpful for purposes of obtaining an order of protection through the courts.

The mission of Residence Life is to develop, coordinate, administer, and evaluate programs, services, facilities, and staff for the myriad of residential living opportunities at the University.

Residence Life, under the leadership of the Director of Residence Life, is strongly committed to living and learning being integrated with social, emotional, and intellectual development. Residence hall living provides many opportunities for students to learn outside the classroom. Residence halls provide an environment for the exchange of ideas, an atmosphere for broadening intellectual activity, and the recognition of students as responsible citizens.

Your major contact with Residence Life will be through your Resident Assistant (RA). He or she will assist your floor in planning programs and activities for your hall, help with roommate issues, and serve as your link with the University. Your RA is also responsible for enforcing the residence hall policies and the Student Code of Conduct.

HOUSING OPTIONS

The Office offers many different housing options from which students can choose.

Belk Hall: Three (3) stories; 210-bed capacity; 3 lounges; sink in each room; kitchen

Mixon Hall: All double rooms; 102-bed capacity; two (2) stories. One apartment style room requires four roommates.

Dunn Hall: Three (3) stories; 212-bed capacity; 2 lounges; laundry

Building B, E, F, G (Apartment-style includes full kitchen, laundry room, common area and 4 private bedrooms) Three stories; 48-bed capacity.

PRIVATE ROOMS

Private rooms are assigned on a space-available basis with priority given to continuing students. The private room rate is above the normal double-occupancy rate. The college reserves the right to alter any or all of the above options and to make room assignments which are considered to be in the best interest of the institution and the larger academic community. Housing options are contingent upon sufficient student requests to justify the housing arrangement.

While guaranteed campus housing, particular residence hall assignments are not guaranteed. The Residence Life makes every effort to honor your first choice; however, circumstances will not always permit this.

NOTE: Students are not permitted to move into an unoccupied room or stay in a double room alone without having paid the private room fee.

HOUSING - ADDITIONAL THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Care of Residence Halls - You are expected to keep your room and other residence hall areas clean and safe.

   » Only nondestructive hanging materials (such as double-side tape) may be used to attach decorations.

   » Window areas should be kept free of articles which are offensive and/or which may create a hazard to fire safety.

   » Hallways should be kept free of personal belongings and trash.

   » Custodial service will clean the stairways, halls, and bathrooms.

Charge for Damages - Damages beyond normal wear and tear are paid for by residents. Occupants are financially responsible for damages within their rooms and to their doors, screens, windows, and ceiling tile. Damages to common areas (hallways, bathrooms, lounges, etc.), which cannot be attributed to an individual or group will be assessed (PRORATED) to residents of the section, floor, hall, or entire student body. Listed below are ways residence halls are most frequently damaged.

   › Doors - Using tacks, nails, staples; removing paint when removing tape; writing, using dart boards; burning paper which is attached to door; damaging locks

   › Carpet - Putting cigarettes out on floor; having water fights; placing hot objects (irons, pots) on floor; staining floor with chewing tobacco; spittle; spilling drinks; spilling food; keeping animals in rooms

- Walls - Putting tape on walls; using nails, tacks, staples; drawing on walls; writing on walls; spitting tobacco juice on walls
- Ceiling - Putting holes in ceiling tiles; sticking objects to ceiling
- Desks - Cutting desktops; placing hot objects (irons, pots) on desks; burning desktops with cigarettes; using nails, screws in desks
- Mattresses - Burning/cutting/tearing holes in mattresses
- Room Furnishings - Relocating mirror; breaking chairs; breaking light fixtures; using drawers to support mattresses or books

Residence Policy

A student who chooses to live off-campus and fails to obtain approval for commuter status will be subject to revocation of registration, loss of institutional financial aid, and/or fines.

Commuter Policy

The Chowan University Board of Trustees has adopted the following policy.

Full-time students are required to live on campus unless they are: (1) married; (2) living in the community with their immediate family with proof of residency; (3) over 23 years of age; or (4) a veteran of the United States military. Students must be enrolled full-time (12 semester hours) to qualify to live on campus.

The requirements to live off-campus are:

1. Must be a junior or senior rank
2. Must have a 2.75 grade point average or better
3. Must have a good campus behavior record
4. Must understand that any disciplinary problems off campus may also be heard within the University disciplinary system
5. Must complete the off-campus housing application and be approved.

Any change of address or telephone number must be given to the Residence Life Office.

Loitering

Due to the increase of students in Whites Crossing, there has been a new policy added to the Student Policies. Loitering is not allowed at any Residence Hall exits in Whites Crossing. This would include the courtyard, balconies, stairwells, and breezeways of this community.

Whites Crossing residents enjoy different living accommodations that come with enhanced privileges as well as greater expectations of community behavior. Residents of this community have the responsibility to their neighbors to comply with our noise, blocking, room occupancy, courtesy hour policies and all other rules listed in the Student Handbook.

Residents should not loiter outside of residence halls or in other spaces designated above. Loitering is defined as lingering idly or without purpose in any area of the campus without official authority, gathering around in clusters, creating or causing unusually loud noises or disrupting the use of facilities. Students, residents, faculty and staff should be able to proceed without having to maneuver around groups.

Maintenance and Housekeeping

Repairs in residence halls are made by calling ext. 1226 (Physical Plant). University personnel provide housekeeping service only in common areas, such as lounges, hallways, stairways and bathrooms. Note: There may be a charge for unclogging drains if there is evidence of negligence.

Opening and Closing of Residence Halls

Residence halls are closed only during Christmas holidays. Students must vacate their rooms on the day the halls close according to the University calendar. At the end of final exams for each semester, students must vacate their rooms within 24 hours after their final exams and/or by the designated time for all residence halls to close, whichever comes first. Failure to possess written permission to occupy a residence hall room from the appropriate university official will result in immediate removal from the residence hall, serious disciplinary action, and/or a fine.

Students who arrive before or stay after the official opening and closing periods will be charged $100.00 per day. Housing is not guaranteed prior to opening or after closing.

Special housing accommodations are not available for International Students during times when the residence halls are closed. In an effort to increase cross-cultural exchange and to strengthen language skills, international students are strongly encouraged to stay in homes of local families or their college friends.

Room Consolidation

Students who have not contracted for single occupancy, do not have a roommate, and have been requested to consolidate but have not, must either change rooms or pay the single room rate. Failure to maintain one’s space in a manner welcoming a new roommate may result in judicial action. Residents do not have the authority to refuse potential roommates. When possible, the Residence Life Office will notify you in advance of a new assignment to your room. Residents may be charged for loss of use of vacant space if conditions or situations in a room make it difficult for someone to move in. This includes not maintaining a clean and safe environment, being rude to prospective resident, not leaving enough space within the room for someone else’s belongings, or driving current roommates out of the living environment by being uncooperative or intolerable. WHERE THERE IS A VACANT SPACE, THE ROOM MUST BE MAINTAINED IN A MANNER BY THE OCCUPANT(S) THAT WILL ALLOW ANOTHER STUDENT TO MOVE IN IMMEDIATELY. See housing contract Section IX Assignment Rights.

Room Assignments

The University reserves the right to make Residence Hall Room Assignments, which are considered to be in the best interest of the institution and the University community. Each student must occupy his or her room in person and may not sublet it to another person. The University reserves the right to require single occupants living in double rooms to move together in order to open double rooms for others.
Room Changes
Students are permitted to change rooms during the room change period provided such changes are approved by the Director Residence Life in advance. Unless the administration initiates the room change, a fee of $25.00 is charged. Any changes made without prior approval will result in a $100.00 fine per person involved, in addition to the $25.00 room change fee.

ROOM CHECKOUT PROCEDURES

All students must follow one of the two check out procedures listed below.

Standard Room Check-Out Procedure
All students must adhere to the following checkout procedure. In order for your RA or Residence Life Staff to complete the checkout procedure, all personal items must be removed from your room and the room should be cleaned.

To check-out:
» Setup time with your RA or Residence Life Staff to complete the room inventory for and return the key.
» All students must checkout within 24 hours of their last exam.
» Remove all personal items and clean room prior to scheduled check-out time.
» At your scheduled time, meet with your RA or Residence Life Staff to complete room inventory form and return key.
» Once all paper work is completed and room key is returned to your RA or Residence Life Staff, you may leave.

Failure to abide by this Check-out Procedure will result in the following:
$100 Improper Check-out Fee, $75 Lock Change Fee, Cleaning Fee and any damages found in the student’s room placed on the student’s account. A $100 a day fee will be assessed to all students who stay longer than 24 hours after their last exam. Damage charges will be based on the condition of the room at check-in compared to check-out. The comparison will be based on the Room Inventory Form signed by the student and Residence Life Staff.

Improper Checkout can also result in the student’s ability to receive a University transcript or negative marks placed on student’s credit bureau rating.

The University is not responsible for any personal property abandoned or left in the room.

Express Check-Out Procedure
Participation in the Express Check-Out Process means to forego participation in the Standard Check-Out Procedure and requires a pre-authorized signature. Express Check-Out forms can be picked up from the RA or the Office of Residence life. The following information is listed on the Express Check-Out Form.

» I am voluntarily agreeing to participate in the Express Check-Out Process and choose not to participate in the traditional Check-Out appointment and room inspection process.
» I will properly clean and prepare my room for move out and fully comply with the requirements of the Check-Out Procedures.
» Residence Life Staff will conduct a complete inspection of my room following my departure and I am waiving my right to be present during the check-out inspection.

» Residence Life Staff will assess damage and cleanliness charges based upon their examination of the room at the time of inspection. (Be aware that you may be held responsible for any damages that may occur after your departure should your roommate not yet be checked out.)
» When applicable, all roommates will share responsibility for any concerns with the condition of the room and all fees and fines will be divided equally among roommates.
» I understand that there is no appeal available for fines and for any damage and cleaning charges assessed for the condition of my room at check-out.

Students who participate in express check-out agree to remove all non-university items, clean room (including vacuuming and removing of all trash). Once the express check-out form is returned, Residence Life Staff will conduct a thorough inspection of the room and the student waives the right to be present during the check-out inspection.

Staff will assess damages based upon their examination of the room at the time of inspection (be aware that you may be held responsible for any damages that may occur after your departure should your roommate not yet be checked out). When applicable, all roommates will share responsibility for the condition of the room and all fines will be divided equally among roommates.

Failure to abide by this Check-Out Procedure will result in the following:
$100 Improper Check-Out Fee, $75 Lock Change Fee, Cleaning Fee and any damages found in the student’s room placed on the student’s account. A $100 a day fee will be assessed to all students who stay longer than 24 hours after their last exam. Damage charges will be based on the condition of the room at check-in compared to check-out. The comparison will be based on the Room Inventory Form signed by the student and Residence Life Staff.

Improper Checkout can also result in the student’s ability to receive a University transcript or negative marks placed on student’s credit bureau rating.

The University is not responsible for any personal property abandoned or left in the room.

Unauthorized Occupancy of a Residence Hall Room
University policy prohibits any person from occupying a residence hall room except their duly assigned one. Any person occupying a residence hall room without written permission from the Director of Residence Life shall be in violation of University Policy. No student should occupy a room during breaks/closures without prior permission from the Director of Residence Life. Those in violation may be subject to suspension and considered trespassing on private property.

Penalty: not less than disciplinary probation and not more than suspension; may include removal from University housing.
Room Furnishings

To ensure that the residence halls remain a place where every student can be comfortable and safe, and can get the most out of the community living experience, the Office of Residence Life has developed specific residence hall policies.

Students who attend Chowan University should be prepared to live in a way, which reflects consistency with the purpose of the University, and in a manner that demonstrates respect for the rights of their fellow students and the University. Students should consider the purchase of insurance or the extension of parents’ insurance to cover such losses. STUDENT RIGHTS, GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

STUDENT CONDUCT SYSTEM

Chowan University seeks to create an environment that promotes the intellectual and personal development of its students. The University is simultaneously responsible for protecting the individual rights of students, staff, and faculty and meeting the general needs of the community. The policies pertaining to the community, academic issues, personal and safety issues, and general administration of the University reflects and establishes the standards and expectations for all members of the University in order for these goals to be obtained.

The Student conduct process is yet another aspect of the educational process at the University. It is intended to instill and reinforce the values and the policies of the community and to further students’ knowledge about the standards of the University and their development of behaviors that are appropriate in a learning community. The process should facilitate students’ understanding of the principle that individual freedom is tied to an acceptance of full responsibility for one's actions and the associated consequences. In particular, the process should promote the development of respect for others, ethical judgment, and a sense of responsibility for what occurs in the University’s community.

Student are not only members of the University’s community but are also members of the larger society. In cases where a student's behavior violates local, state, or federal law, the student may become involved in civil or criminal proceedings independent of the University's proceedings, as well as the University's student conduct system.

Crime Statistics

Crime statistics reported to campus authorities are reported annually to the federal Department of Education and distributed to all faculty, students, and staff by October 1st of each year. The report is maintained on the University's website at MyCU, the Student Affairs section: http://www.chowan.edu/sites/chowan.edu/files/www/related-files-files/asr_and_fire_statistics_for_2017_cy2017-pub-10-1-2018.pdf

In compliance with the United Department of Education, requests for campus crime statistics should be directed to the Director of Public Safety at (252) 398-1234.

Judicial Authority

The University may begin judicial proceedings against any student, whether admitted, enrolled, or on-leave, who has violated the Student Code of Conduct or any other policies of the University, whether the behavior occurred on- or off-campus. By voluntarily choosing to affiliate with Chowan University, students accept the responsibility to comply with the regulations outlined in the Student Code of Conduce, which apply to behavior on- and off-campus. Therefore, the University's jurisdiction and discipline shall generally include conduct which occurs on and off the University's community or the pursuit of the University's mission.

Hearing Bodies

The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee has responsibility for the maintenance of campus discipline, however, ultimate responsibility rests with the senior staff and trustees. Accordingly, notwithstanding any provisions of the student government constitution or bylaws, the University reserves the right to discipline, place on probation, suspend, or separate any student whose conduct or academic standing is unsatisfactory, without prior hearings before a hearing officer, panel, or other campus committees. The Vice President for Student Affairs or their designee often conducts an administrative review of a student, which is a regular component of the university's student conduct system. Such a review is the equivalent of a hearing. Reviews and hearings may be conducted by the Vice President for Student Affairs and other members of the Student Affairs team, including Resident Life staff members. The VPSA may also choose to convene a panel of hearing officers.

Complaint & Hearings

A. Any member of the Chowan University community may file a complaint against another student for alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct. All complaints shall be in writing and directed to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

B. During the hearing, students involved in an incident have the opportunity to discuss items relevant to the specific incident and the hearing officers have the ability to ask fact finding questions as it relates to the specific incident.

C. Hearing panels will come to consensus for any violations and sanctions.

D. In every case, the individuals involved shall be notified of the hearing outcome within approximately 5 business days of the hearing.

E. Appeals to the decisions set forth by the hearing officer or panel follow the same procedures as appeals to any decision made by any hearing officer, which are set forth in the Appeals section of the Student Handbook.

Chowan University may also institute a complaint:

A. A public safety incident report or other appropriate documentation serving as the initiating document. Complaints may be filed via incident reports wit the administration, incident reports with a paraprofessional staff member (i.e. resident assistant), Public Safety reports, and Police Reports, among others. All complaints should be filed as soon as possible after the alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

B. The full adjudication process for violations of the Student
Code of Conduct is outlined in Student Rights, Guidelines & Expectations section of the Student Handbook. Normally, the VPSA shall assign an administrative review office, or officers for an administrative review or convene a hearing panel based upon the complexity and/or severity of the alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct. A complaint filed with the VPSA shall normally be directed to a hearing panel if it fulfills one or more of the following criteria:

- the alleged violation has wide ranging community implications
- the alleged violation includes significant uncertain questions of fact
- the alleged violation has not been previously encountered within the University’s community
- a person was or could have been seriously physically harmed
- a person’s safety was threatened
- extensive damage to University property occurred or could have occurred
- the student charged with the violation is a repeated offender of University policies
- staff and/or faculty members are involved in the incident a club or organization’s standing at the University may be affected.

However, the VPSA or their designee may choose to hear any case an administrative review, and may impose sanction(s) listed in the Sanctions section of this document.

C. The administrative review officer shall make a determination of responsibility for the alleged violation and, if appropriate, may impose sanctions.

D. The hearing panel, or hearing officer, shall make a determination of responsibility for the alleged violation and impose sanction(s) listed in the Sanctions section of this document

E. The judicial process is intended to provide the student an opportunity to respond to allegations of violations of the Student Code of Conduct, thereby enabling the Administrative review officer, or hearing panel/officer, to make an informed decision about responsibility and appropriate sanctions. However, if a student fails to respond to communications (in the form of written notification, telephone, email, or oral requests) attempting to schedule a meeting, or fails to attend a scheduled meeting, a decision based upon available information may be rendered in absentia.

Disciplinary Procedures
Cases will be directed to the appropriate hearing body by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee.

A. General Guidelines for Disciplinary Hearings
These are the general guidelines for all hearing bodies:

- Although there is no statute of limitations on matters involving any alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct, a hearing is normally conducted in a timely fashion, as close to the date of the alleged violation as possible.
- Proceedings of all hearings are confidential. Members of the hearing panel and student(s) involved may not discuss testimony or evidence with any person not on the panel or not directly involved in the case.

- Legal counsel and parents may not be present at the hearing.
- The standard of proof in all judicial cases shall be a preponderance of the evidence.

In general, this may include residence life staff members, the Associate Vice President, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or other members of the Student Affairs team. An appeal must be submitted within five (5) calendar days in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs. The VPSA may consult with other appropriate campus departments and individuals in evaluating the appeal. All appeal decisions are final and will be communicated to the student within two (2) business days.

G. No Contact Order “No-Contact Order” is a directive that mandates that students are not to have contact in any way, including in person, via e-mail, telephone, text messaging, social media (i.e. Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, and any other platform) or any other method of electronic or direct communication. The order also includes third parties acting on either students’ behalf. The University may issue a “No-Contact Order” when it is deemed necessary to provide any or all students an opportunity to participate fully in the life of the University. A student who violates a “No-Contact Order” shall be considered to be in violation of the Student Handbook (specifically, Failure to Comply) and shall be subject to sanctions at any level. “No Contact Orders” may be issued by the Vice President for Student Affairs, Public Safety, or their express designeess; in instances that may fall under the Sexual Misconduct Policy, “No-Contact Orders” may be issued by the Title IX Coordinator.

On-call staff and incident responders, most often Public Safety and Residence Life staff, may issue verbal no contact orders. These verbal no contact orders are directives to de-escalate situations. When a verbal no contact order is issued, the issuer will notify the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs who will evaluate whether there is an on-going need for a formal no contact order and contact the students.

Modifications to a “No-Contact Order” may be requested by contacting the administrator who issued the “No-Contact Order” or the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs. All parties, including the alleged student (also known as respondent), will be given explicit notice of the “No-Contact Order,” including notification that any violation will result in additional student conduct charges.

If a student believes a no contact order directly and unduly impacts their ability to participate fully in the life of the University, they may appeal the no contact order to the Vice President of Student Affairs within 5 business days of the directive being communicated in writing. To appeal, the student would notify the Vice President in writing of their concerns and describe how the order unduly impacts their life at the University.

H. Withdrawal and Readmission If a respondent voluntarily withdraws from the Colleges while a complaint is under investigation for prohibited conduct, when the Respondent chooses to withdraw from the University prior to the conclusion of the formal judicial process, the Vice President for Student Affairs or their designee should make a notation in the student's file that there is a pending judicial case. Should the student re-apply for admission to the University, the judicial process will resume.

If the complaint cannot be resolved because the complainant, witnesses or evidence are not available, re-enrollment shall normally be denied. Permission for readmission shall be granted solely at the discretion of the VPSA or their designee.

I. Abuse of the Judicial System The following behaviors are not permitted, including, but not limited to:

All student that have violated the student code of conduct, to include parking fines, are required to pay and complete all sanctions by the specified due date. Students who fail to complete the sanctions in the specified time period will have a disciplinary hold placed on their student account until all sanctions have been completed. These holds will prohibit the student from receiving academic transcripts, registering for classes, graduating or be involve in extra-curricular activities such as clubs, intramurals or NCAA sanctioned athletic events.

Disciplinary Review
All disciplinary outcomes are subject to review by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. If an outcome from the disciplinary process is inconsistent with the nature of the offense or there is a history of disciplinary negligence by the student a new hearing may be required.

Grievance Procedures
Situations may arise in which a student believes that he or she has not received fair treatment by a representative of the University or has a complaint about the performance, actions, or inactions of the staff or faculty affecting a student. These grievance procedures shall be available to any student. Before filing a grievance with respect to equal opportunity, equal pay, opportunity for promotion, or discrimination of any sort, a student is encouraged to speak first with his/her employer, or the administrator or member of the faculty involved. If the grievance is not resolved at the level, the student is encouraged to bring the matter to the attention of the next administrative level; e.g., chairperson, dean, or administrative department head. Failing to receive satisfaction, the grievant may use the applicable procedure(s) described below:

Any student who has a grievance involving the impermissible use of the factor of race, creed, national origin, sex, age, handicap, or other irrelevant factors may present a written complaint within 90 days of the date of the grievance to either the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Vice President for Student Affairs, or in their absence any member of the Administrative Council who shall review the matter within 30 days.

Notification of Parents/Guardians
The University understands and values the special relationships that can exist between students, parent/guardians and the University. Developmental and legal issues (such as FERPA) guide and at times limit the amount of information the University may share with parents/guardians. Whenever possible the University will approach its relationships with parents/guardians as partners in the development of our students.

The University reserves the right to notify the parents/guardians of dependent students whenever a student is found responsible for prohibited behavior. Further, the University reserves the right to notify the parents/guardians of any student who presents a clear and present threat to the health, safety and welfare of the student, faculty, staff, other students, or guests of the University.

University policy prohibits parents/guardians from participating in the University conduct process. Students must give special permission prior to parents having access to conduct information unless such information falls within the aforementioned guidelines.

Academic Cheating
The purpose of an academic honor code is to build high principles of honor, integrity, and community. An honor code assumes that students will practice honesty with respect to testing and the exchange of ideas and concepts.

Further, such a code requires that students report those who violate this code. The faculty and administration of Chowan University view academic cheating as a serious matter that cannot be tolerated.

Academic cheating is the intentional use or attempt to use unauthorized information from any source during any academic pursuit. Both collusion and plagiarism are also regarded as forms of cheating. Collusion is interpreted as two or more students working together in order to practice dishonesty or deception. Plagiarism is the presentation of work (for example, words, concepts, ideas, or graphics) of another as his or her own work without properly citing the source.

In the event a faculty member believes that a student has engaged in cheating and/or plagiarism, the teacher will submit the evidence to his/her Chairperson. If the faculty member and the Chairperson agree that substantive evidence of cheating exits, they will submit the evidence to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (Provost). If the Provost finds that the evidence supports a charge of cheating and/or plagiarism, he may offer the student a penalty that is acceptable to both the student and the teacher. If a penalty is not offered or is refused, the Provost will appoint a committee of three faculty members, one of whom must be from the department in which the alleged infraction occurred, to hear the case. The committee will render a decision of guilty or not guilty, and will forward to the Provost a recommended penalty in the event that the student is found to be guilty. The penalty for academic cheating may range from an F in the course to preliminary suspension to expulsion from the University, depending upon the magnitude of the offense. On a second offense of academic cheating at any time during a student’s enrollment at Chowan University, the penalty may be no less than suspension from the University with a semester grade of F in the course in which the offense occurred. In the event that the Provost should impose a penalty of suspension or expulsion, the student has the right to appeal the penalty to the President of the University. It is expected that the foregoing policy and procedure will be followed in all cases involving academic cheating.

Chowan University provides and maintains computing and telecommunications technologies through the Office of Information Technology and various departmental computer systems. The university relies heavily upon these systems to meet educational, informational, operational, and financial needs. These systems and machines must be protected from misuse and unauthorized access. Chowan’s computers, computer systems, and computer networks, as well as the data they store and process, must be operated and maintained in a secure environment and in a responsible manner.

This policy covers all computers and servers ranging from single user personal computers to those connected to any university network. Academic departments may have individual policies in addition to this general policy. In addition to this acceptable use policy, users of these computer systems are subject to applicable state and federal laws.

Computing resources are provided to support the education, research, and work of its students, faculty, and staff. The priorities for use of these resources are:

   » are requested to finish any food or drink before using computing facilities.
   » are to recognize that academic use of the workstations have priority over all other uses. Recreational use in computing facilities is permitted during periods of light usage; however, you may not play games or engage in other recreational activities when others are waiting to use the workstations for academic purposes.
   » must realize that individual computing center facilities and other university facilities may post additional operational rules and restrictions that are considered part of this policy.
   » must not load or modify any software onto any hard drive without specific prior permission of the system administrator or custodian of the files.
   » Printing output is limited to 500 sheets per student each academic year. If you happen to start the year in January, your account will be credited 250 sheets. If you use all your print quota, you can go to the Business Office and deposit more money into your print account at the rate of $.08 per page in increments of 100 pages.

Revised and endorsed by the Executive Director of Information Technology,

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A MEMBER OF THE CHOWAN NETWORK

Chowan University provides access to its computer network to members of the campus community, and promotes the development of a community of electronic learners with rights and responsibilities. The Chowan computer network is essential to meeting the educational, informational, operational, and financial needs of the institution. The university provides access to the network with the understanding that network use, like other areas of campus life, will be guided by the university mission statement.

The campus computer network is part of that "environment" in which the university expects students to demonstrate their developing "skills, knowledge, creativity, and ethical values." When you use the campus computer network, you do so as a member of a community of learners who share "a moral commitment to the pursuit of truth." Responsible participation in this community requires respecting the values inherent in the university’s mission and abiding by policies that ensure the mutual benefit of all members of the community.

RESPECTING THE VALUES INHERENT IN THE UNIVERSITY’S MISSION

In accordance with its mission, Chowan upholds certain standards of community decency, promotes the development of ethical values, and emphasizes personal responsibility. The values inherent in the university’s mission statement have specific implications for how the university’s computer and other resources will be used. These include:

a. Academic Excellence.
To insure that computer resources are used in ways that promote academic excellence, educational use has priority over other uses. Use of the network in ways that limit others’ educational use—such as time-consuming or multipleterminal-consuming game playing or excessive message-sending during peak lab hours—violate the university’s commitment to academic excellence by interfering with others’ use of the computers to pursue educational goals. Talking and noise making in the computer labs also diminishes others’ opportunity to use the computer resources for educational purposes. Computer labs are designated only for Chowan students, faculty, and staff. Children and unauthorized guests are not allowed in the computer labs.

b. The Dignity and Worth of Each Individual.
Each member of the network community is expected not only to respect the basic rights of others, but to act in ways that respect the equal dignity and worth of all persons regardless of race, class, sex, or creed. Accessing or sending racially or sexually degrading or harassing materials is not in keeping with the dignity and worth of individuals. Pornographic materials, because they tend to reduce persons to objects, fail to respect the dignity and worth of whole individuals. Viewing such materials in the computer labs is not only offensive to the decency of others, but can also create an atmosphere of sexual harassment.

Open dialogue is essential to learning. Therefore, every member of the network community has a right to enter into dialogue without fear of harassment. Practices such as “flaming,” personal attacks, and sending harassing messages diminish the possibility of open dialogue.

d. Freedom of Inquiry and Expression.
All members of the network community possess a basic right to freedom of inquiry and expression, and a responsibility to exercise that right within the bounds of decency and ethical responsibility. Members of the network community will at all times respect the intellectual property rights of others and will conduct themselves in keeping with copyright and other laws.

c. A Moral Commitment to the Pursuit of Truth.
Participation in the network community is guided by our common commitment to the pursuit of truth. Because all information available through computer networks is not equally worthy of attention, network members will need to exercise discernment in the acquisition and dissemination of information via the computer network just as they do in the classroom.

ABIDING BY POLICIES FOR THE MUTUAL BENEFIT OF ALL

The Chowan University “Policy on Use of Computers and Data” has been devised to ensure that the university’s computer resources are utilized in ways that ensure the greatest possible benefit to all users and to the institution. Responsible membership in the network community requires abiding by the rules and guidelines set forth in the Policy statement.

Revised and endorsed by the Executive Director of Information Technology.

CHOWAN UNIVERSITY EMAIL POLICY

Purpose
This email policy is intended to help employees and students understand the acceptable use of university issued email addresses. Email services are provided by the University to support its primary role of education and any other associated functions.

Scope
This policy applies to all faculty, staff, students, alumni, retirees, and contractors that have been issued an active university email address. This policy applies to the use of sending or receiving emails and attachments with a university supplied address.

Responsibilities
Individual users are responsible for the account that have been assigned to them. The use of email by these individuals assumes and implies compliance with this policy. The University expects individuals to use their assigned email accounts in a manner that does not violate university policy or community standards, violate the privacy rights of its employees and students, discloses confidential information of the university or otherwise detract from or cause harm to the University and/or individuals employed or associated with the university.

Policy
1. University use of email
Email is the official means for communication within the University. Therefore, the University has the right to send emails to any authorized user and expect those communications will be received and read in a timely fashion.

2. Assignment of email addresses
The University Information Technology department will assign email address using the naming convention used for that group of users. Students will be created using the first letter of their first and middle name, their last name, birth month, and birthday. For example, John Q. Doe born on January 10 would be JQDoe0110@chowan.edu. Faculty and staff are created using the standard naming convention of the first five characters of their last name followed by their first name initial. An example would be John Doe’s email address is DoeJ@chowan.edu.

3. Email retention
The University uses Google Apps for Education to provide email services to its users. Email is not designed to be a record retention system and the University follows Google’s policies regarding email and retention. Any email address that is removed from the system results in that user’s emails and records of those emails being removed at the same time. Any deleted email in an active account will remain in trash until Google’s policy removes it forever. The University will cooperate with any request for discovery of an account, upon the approval of the Vice President for Human Resources, but it is understood if items are outside of the time frame dictated by Google, then the University will not be able to comply with the request. Students that have left school the previous academic year are removed from the system at the beginning of the next fall semester. With the exception of retirees, faculty and staff are removed at the end of their last day as an active employee.

4. Expectation of Privacy
The University recognizes the importance of privacy in an academic setting and will not routinely monitor a user’s email. There are certain circumstances in which the University might monitor, access, or disclose a user’s communications without permission of that user. These circumstances can include the following:
› When required by a legal authority;
› To preserve the health and safety of a user or other individual;
› To maintain the integrity of the network or other university systems;
› When there are grounds to believe a breach of university policy or violation of the law has taken place.

5. Procedures
The Executive Director of Information Technology will review this policy as needed and reserves the right to change it at any time. Any changes will be published to the Chowan website and the next printing of the student handbook.
