

YOUR HOME

AWAY FROM HOME

At Chowan, small means more. Living on campus is a big part of that something more—because it's where you get to know people best. Welcome to a place where we share more, do more, and accomplish more—together.

RESIDENCE HALLS FOR YOUR FIRST YEAR

Belk Hall is a three-story residence for 210 freshman female students. Belk was renovated in 2015 and includes three lounges and a kitchen.

Parker Hall is a nine-story residence for 280 freshman male students. Parker was renovated in 2015 and includes a lounge and recreational space.

AND WHEN IT'S TIME TO MOVE UP

Whites Crossing is the university's newest residential complex for upperclassmen, offering apartment-style or suite-living options.

ALL YOU CAN EAT (AND YOU DON'T EVEN HAVE TO COOK!)

Thomas Hall serves up a variety of foods at every meal with continuous service from 7:30 in the morning until 7:00 in the evening. Murf's is the campus restaurant hangout, featuring a Subzone and multiple screens.

... BUT YOU WILL NEED TO DO YOUR LAUNDRY.

You'll find washing machines and dryers in all residence hall laundry rooms with the Laundry View feature to check availability. Residential students receive $45 worth of Laundry $ per semester.

KEEP YOUR HAWKSCARD HANDY!

Your HawksCard gives you access to your residence hall, meal plan, recreational equipment, and even laundry credits.

SECURITY

With Chowan's public safety officers on duty round-the-clock, you'll feel secure and taken care of night and day. As with all communities, personal safety is a shared responsibility where each member plays an active role in assuring each other's safety by cooperating with university authorities and reporting any safety concerns. Within the residence halls, personal belongings should be permanently marked/engraved with your name. Keep serial numbers for belongings in a safe

VALUABLES AND INSURANCE

Check with your parents' insurance agent to see if your personal belongings are insured. If not, you may wish to purchase a policy for the academic year. Chowan University assumes no liability for loss, damage, theft, or vandalism to personal property.
