

Residency License

Chowan University's Residency License is a model designed to assist residency candidates in meeting residency licensure requirements. Participants can complete coursework in as few as six courses with continuous enrollment.

Note that cohort candidates must fulfill all requirements set forth by NC DPI's Residency License, specifically in relation to licensure, employment, testing, coursework, etc. Enrollment in Chowan's Program does not guarantee employment within a school district or fulfillment of all licensure requirements.*

Advantages of Chowan's Residency License:

- Six course plan of study – two course(s) per semester with continuous enrollment
- Fully online course offerings

Residency Licensure Areas:

- Elementary; K-6
- Health/Physical Education; K-12
- Music; K-12
- High School/Secondary Grades; 9-12: Comprehensive Science, English, Mathematics, Social Studies
