THE JOHN H. DAVIS KEYNOTE LECTURER

ASHLEY N. DOANE
SENIOR LECTURER
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY
OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY

Dr. Ashley Doane earned her B.S. in Psychology, M.S. in Psychology, and Ph.D. in Applied Experimental Psychology (now Health Sciences) from Old Dominion University. She is currently a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Psychology at ODU. Prior to returning to ODU, Dr. Doane was a Professor of Psychology and Chair of the Department of Psychology at Chowan University. Dr. Doane has taught a variety of undergraduate courses (primarily courses in developmental psychology, cognitive psychology, statistics, and research methods).

She was a recipient of the McDowell Columns Scholar Prize in 2013 and the Faculty Advisor of the Year Award in 2022 at Chowan. At ODU, Dr. Doane received the Outstanding Classroom Instructor Graduate Teaching Award.

Dr. Doane's research interests include predictors of cyberbullying victimization and perpetration, the role of cyberbullying bystanders, and cyberbullying prevention. She has worked with students to develop and evaluate student-led cyberbullying programs that focus on reducing cyberbullying perpetration and victimization and improving positive bystander behavior. Dr. Doane previously participated in the Consortium Research Fellows Program as a Senior Consortium Fellow to assist the Army Research Institute in addressing cyberbullying among soldiers.
